

LEXINGTON HERALD.

Established March 4, 1885, and Made Famous in the Celebrated Story of "Jonathan and His Continent," by Max O'Rell.

SPENCER COOPER, Owner and Editor.

"Of a Nasty World, With News From All Nations Lumbering at His Back,"

$1.00 A YEAR, Always in Advance.

TENTH YEAR.

HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1894.

NUMBER 5.

Georgetown (Texas) Generalities.

Everything is now quite lovely in Texas. The recent rains have made plenty of grass and a new crop of enterprise seems to exist. The prairies are all covered over with beautiful flowers of almost every kind and color. Indeed, we are very much reminded of what the young lady said to the little military clerk while he was wrapping up some artificial flowers for her, "O, how lovely,"—she meant the flowers of course.

The click of the cotton planter and rattle of cultivators can now be heard in every direction. Farmers are the most busily engaged at present I ever saw them, in fact, every business occupant seems to be full of new life and on the road to prosperity.

Some few third parties, who are waiting for congress to enact laws that will provide for them such things as they now stand in great need of, are doing but little. It's right disgusting to hear some women out here talk third partyism. They seem as if they would be greatly gratified if the third party was only strong enough to make war upon the government. Poor silly creatures, I'm quite sure it would take very little war to do them. Let me say a word right here to all young ladies—if you have been accustomed to talking politics, never be guilty of the like again. You are only making a mockery of your own ignorance, which intelligence will spurn with contempt.

New counterfeit bank notes have been discovered at Fort Worth recently. This time it is the ten-dollar bill of the Fort Worth national bank that has been counterfeited. Among parties who received these bills are the Texas brewing company and the Crawford dry goods company. In both instances the bills were sent in with collections and the bogus money was readily detected and returned to the unsuspecting owners who had been beat. These bills were all made from the photographs of genuine bills from which with the aid of acids was made what is termed a relief plate from the photograph. The signatures of President K. M. Vanzandt and Cashier N. Harding were forged on the bill with pen and ink. A conviction exists in the minds of many that these bogus bills were all made in or near Fort Worth. That there is a gang engaged in shoving the queer in these parts is evident. Matters have come to such a pass that every bill now presented is closely scrutinized and in many cases experts are appealed to before it is accepted. No clue to the identity of the shovers of the money exists thus far. Cashier T. C. Phillips of the First National bank of Bowie, was in Fort Worth not long since looking after some counterfeit bills that had been passed in Fort Worth recently forged on the bank in Bowie.

The Dever boys and Von Evans, the accused would be train robbers, have decided not to have another examining trial, but to remain in jail until the next regular term of court and then try to beat the case. Why they refused to give bond I do not know, as they could easily fill a million dollar bond if they wished to.

A very interesting meeting is being carried on at this place by Rev. Nelson, of the Methodist church. Quite a number of Georgetown's fairer sex have been in constant attendance and if there was a Kentucky boy in town who did not attend it was on account of heart trouble.

The corn that was replanted after the freeze in March is looking well and I think if we have a few late rains there will be some corn made yet.

The plovers have come to see us again and the roar of shot guns would remind an old soldier of war times.

We now have plenty of garden vegetables. How is this to the side of dear old Kentucky?

May THE HERALD and its worthy editor ever be found among good people.

April 16, 1894. WESTERNER.

In The Days of Our Grandmothers Sulphur and molasses reigned supreme in the spring time. Nowadays we take Humphreys' Specific No. 10 for dyspepsia, and all stomach troubles, keeping the blood pure, so that no spring dosing is necessary. For sale by druggists.

Drove Wife and Son Away.

Because his wife would not send their six-year-old boy out to work, John Moore ran both of them out of the house, threatening their lives. He lives at 631 East Main street, Louisville, Ky. One afternoon last week Moore drank too much whisky. He came home and found his wife ironing. Their son Johnny was sitting on the floor playing with some building blocks. Mrs. Moore says her husband threw the blocks out of the window. Then, she says, he seized Johnny by the collar and shook him until the boy cried. At that, he made fun of the little fellow and said that he ought to be put to work. Mrs. Moore said the boy was too young to work. Then Moore said the boy was too young to live to, and started into the kitchen. He soon came out carrying a long butcher knife. When the boy saw his father, he ran screaming into the street. Moore did not attempt to follow his son, but turned his attention to his wife. He chided her again for not making the boy work, and when she answered him, he threw the knife at her. The knife struck the ironing board beside her. While it was still quivering, he picked up a hatchet and started after her. She ran with all her might for the door, pursued by her husband. When she reached the street, a number of men who had been standing at Donahue's saloon ran to her assistance. They disarmed Moore, who swore at and threatened to kill them. Mrs. Moore and her son went into a neighbor's house. She says she is afraid of her life and believes her husband is crazy.

How Much Rain Will Fall.

The Weekly Courier-Journal has struck a popular note in its weather guessing contests. A wonderful amount of interest was taken in its offer of $1,000 for the closest guesses to the coldest day and temperature during February, at Louisville, and much valuable information was gathered by subscribers on the subject. This contest has just been decided, there being twenty-eight lucky guessers. The Weekly Courier-Journal now makes another offer on the same line. For the closest guesses to the amount of rain that will fall at Louisville during the month of May, the Weekly Courier-Journal will give $1,000. This money will be divided into nineteen presents—one of $500, two of $100 each, two of $50 each, four of $25 each, and ten of $10 each. Each guess must be accompanied by $1, to pay for one year's subscription to the Weekly Courier-Journal, the best Democratic paper published. The rain-fall is scientifically measured, to the hundredth part of an inch. The heaviest rain-fall in May during the past twenty years was seven inches and forty-six hundredths. The lightest was one inch even. The measurements are made by the government officials of the weather bureau at Louisville. Sample copies of the paper with full particulars of the contest, will be sent free to any address. Write at once, as under no circumstances will any guesses be received after April 30th. Address Weekly Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky.

A Stepmother's Crime.

The most atrocious crime in the history of Magoffin county has just been committed. About three miles from Salersville, Ky., on Middle Fork of the Lick river, the eleven-year-old boy of Jeff Gullett, a prominent farmer, was strangled to death by his step-mother. Mr. Gullett was away from home, but arrived a few hours after the death of his son. The boy had been ill for some days past, but was much better on the last evening of his life. The family, consisting of the woman, the dead boy and a hired boy named Harry, retired early, and about midnight Mrs. Gullett called the hired boy and told him to go to a neighbor's, about a mile distant, and tell them that the boy was dead. When the neighbor got there he found that it was true, and on examining the body found finger prints on his neck. Foul play was immediately suspected, and some inquiries the woman made the day before about the effect of certain poisons and her well-known hatred of the boy cast suspicion upon her. The coroner was called in, a jury summoned immediately, which rendered a verdict of death by strangulation at the hands of the boy's stepmother. The woman is now behind the bars of the county jail awaiting for the law to deal with her.

Quarrelsome Whisky.

A negro named Douglas Wakefield, living on the farm of Oswald Thomas, in the north part of Shelby county, Kentucky, went to England loaded up on trapping whisky, and returning home sought to raise a difficulty with one Thurmon, a white tenant on the same farm. On being remonstrated with by Mr. Thomas, the negro turned upon him and opened fire with a revolver, firing three shots, one of which took effect in the forearm, making a flesh wound. Seeing his father attacked, a twenty-year-old son of Mr. Thomas rushed into the house, seized a shotgun loaded with birdshot, and fired two charges into the negro, causing wounds which will probably result in death. Wakefield was taken to Shelbyville and put in jail.

Ayer's Hair Vigor restores gray hair to its original color, makes it vigorous and abundant.

A Lynching in Sight.

A bold case of incendiarism and attempted murder occurred in Blount county, ten miles from Knoxville, Tenn., last week. A man named T. J. Shoemaker was arrested and lodged in jail at Maryville charged with the crime. After firing two large stock barns, valued at $3,000, he entered the residence of James Anderson, and by the light of matches fired two shots at young Anderson while he slept. Both shots took effect, but are not serious. All the stock in the barns, consisting of several head of horses, mules and cattle, was burned. When the story of the incendiarism and attempted murder became known, the farmers of the surrounding country were indignant and gathered a posse of one hundred strong, armed to the teeth. In the posse were two justices of the peace, who deputized the entire mob as deputies to hunt the would be assassin. When the mob had gone into the mountains Shoemaker, learning he had not killed young Anderson, went back to the house to make another attempt at murder, and was arrested. The indignant farmers were then lynched him in a showman feigns insanity now, but his actions were through spite caused by being discharged from the farm a short time ago.

A Colored Man's Luck.

While a colored man named Orange Brown was waiting for a train near Paducah, Ky., he stopped to rest at an old hollow stump. The stump was loose from decay, and he began to listlessly pull it to pieces. As he did this, to his surprise, an iron trinket became exposed. He proceeded to investigate, and what he found was a great surprise. The lid had become fastened to the kettle by rust and was removed with difficulty when, looking into the kettle, Brown discovered bright, shining gold coins; bright in places, but dirty and stained by the rust of the kettle. In others, he removed the coins at once and found himself in possession of three $20 gold pieces, fifteen $10 gold pieces and nine $5 coins, amounting in all to $255. There was also in the kettle, he said, what appeared to have been a very large roll of paper money, probably greenbacks, but being exposed to the air fell to pieces, being utterly worthless and not equal to being controlled. He simply caught the figures of $20 as the wad fell to pieces. This is undoubtedly money that was hidden during the war by somebody who never lived to return for it.

He Held the Elder Under Water.

The Mormons have been having a great revival in Pocahontas county, West Virginia. It was baptizing day and hundreds gathered on the Greenbrier river, for an above board Church Lick. Among the converts to be baptized was an enthusiastic man named Peterson, who shouted "Glory!" at the top of his voice. Just as the elder dipped him he seemed to lose all control of himself, and in a minute he and the elder were struggling in each other's embrace. The elder was willing to let go, but the old man held to him, evidently trying to drown the elder. For fully ten minutes the struggle kept up; first one would be under the water and then the other. Finally the elder was apparently played out and the convert got him under the water for good. He held him there, shouting that he had drowned the flesh and the devil. By that time men on the bank had come to their senses, and several of them rushed to the man and forced him to let the elder go. The elder was insensible and did not come to for fully half an hour, and he is in a critical condition. The convert is violently insane and will be sent to the asylum.

Met and Married the Same Day.

A boy who gave his name as Will Green went into the Charity organization one afternoon recently and said he wanted aid. He told Mrs. Beerling and his father had started in a shanty boat from Bay City, Ill., on their way to West Virginia. When they reached Paducah, Ky., he says his father fell in love with a woman on another shanty boat moored near by. He says his father saw the woman in the morning and that the two were married that night. When they went to get married, the boy says they went up in town. Later he returned to the river and found only one shanty boat left. That was the one to which the woman had belonged. The proprietor of it was swearing because the woman left him. The boy says that when the man saw him he started after him with a gun. The boy ran away and has been tramp-ing ever since. He was sent to the Wayfarrers' lodge, but left when he found he had to wash for meals.—Courier Journal.

Two Men Killed.

From the upper end of Pike county, Kentucky, comes the news that the notorious Frank Phillips, who figured so prominently in the Hatfield and McCoy feud, and William Bevins, a detective, were killed last week near the Kentucky and Virginia state line, at the head of the Sandy river, by the Ricketts boys, who recently killed old man Ferrell in two counties, West Virginia. Phillips and Bevins were in pursuit of the Ricketts boys. It is not known whether the killing took place in Kentucky or Virginia.

WHEN IN LEXINGTON VISIT MARCH'S

24 W. Main Street,
—FOR—
Furniture, CARPETS AND STOVES.

MONEY SAVED ON EVERY ARTICLE.

C. B. ROSS, JR., & CO.

LEXINGTON.

We have an elegant assortment of
NOVELTIES
— IN —
Dress Goods, Silks
— AND —
KID GLOVES.

When in Lexington don't fail to give us a call.

Big Drive In
CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, ETC.
Send for our Price List.

MERCHANTS (JOB LOT) HOUSE,
137 and 139 Race Street,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Clark County National Bank

MAIN STREET, WINCHESTER, KY.

JOHN W. BEAN, President.
R. F. CURTIS, Cashier.

Capital, $200,000. Surplus, $100,000.
Undivided Profits, $35,000.

Organized 1865, being the oldest bank in the county. Collections made on all points, and your business solicited.

Winchester Bank

WINCHESTER, KY.

N. H. WITHERSPON, President.
R. D. HUNTER, Cashier.

Paid up Capital, $200,000.00.
Surplus, $60,000.00.

This Bank solicits the accounts of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky, and offers its customers every facility, and the most liberal terms within the limits of legitimate banking.

Masonville and Lonsdale Cotton, 7½c yd.

Best Calicos, 4½c yd.

Lancaster Apron Gingham, 4½c per yd.

We are Sole Agents for
Foster's Kid Gloves,
Featherbone Corsets
— AND —
Standard Patterns.

C. B. ROSS, JR. & CO.

Lexington.

WM. B. LOCAN,

Druggist and Bookseller,
WINCHESTER, KY.

Mail orders promptly attended to, and your patronage is desired. Call when in the city.

C. B. ROSS, JR. & CO.

Lexington.

THE HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
THURSDAY, : April 26, 1894.

YOU'LL FIND IT HERE.

Hardin county, Kentucky, already has an announced candidate for the legislature.

The Franklin county (Ky.) grand jury returned 106 indictments at its recent session.

Ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis has been appointed United States senator from North Carolina, to succeed the late Senator Vance.

Henry Bowling, once sentenced to death at Mt. Sterling for the murder of John Brown in 1852, received only a ten years sentence on the second trial.

Three moonshine distilleries and a large quantity of liquor were destroyed in Perry and Leslie counties, Kentucky, last week by revenue officials.

Peter Mortel, a dissolute St. Louis shoemaker, committed suicide by taking poison. He pawned his wife's wedding ring for money to buy the drug.

Money is so scarce in some sections of the mountains that the editor of one of our exchanges says he will take on subscription anything that he can eat or wear.

This year, according to the entomologists, the seventeen-year locusts and their young or thirteen-year cousins will spread the summer with us, beginning to arrive in May.

Saloons in Ohio will hereafter be carried on as openly as any other business. The new law prohibits screens, curtains or other devices to hide the interior of a room where liquor is sold.

During a storm near Gridley, Ill., lightning struck a barn owned by Richard Brees. The building was destroyed and a hired man named Jendry, who was stunned, was burned to death.

A jurymen in Missouri pleaded in extenuation of an act of contempt of court that he had the choice between that and contempt of wife, he rather thought the court would be more merciful.

A prominent Clark county farmer, who has given the matter a practical test, says there is more money in five acres of a well cultivated apple orchard than there is in twenty acres of tobacco.

During the past week eleven industrial plants throughout the country have shut down, while thirty-two have resumed operations, giving employment to 3,000 persons who were in enforced idleness.

Several months ago Lucien Patterson killed Charles Hines, at Greenwood, Polaski county, Ky., and fled to the jury found Patterson guilty and fixed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary.

Senator Palmer introduced a bill in the senate repealing the state bank tax, but prohibiting the issuing of money by state banking institutions or by any other corporation or person except national banks.

Congressman Berry, of the Sixth district, says he has not abandoned hope of a bigger appropriation for the Kentucky river improvements, and will urge the committee to name at least $300,000 as Kentucky's part of this season's appropriation.

Cincinnati physicians say that there is an epidemic of bowel and stomach trouble in that city, and that the disease is largely due to impure condition of the drinking water. The only safe-guard, they claim, is to boil the water before drinking it.

A mob of Ohio men, women and children, led by the injured wife, stoned a faithless husband from the top of a miller, and held the woman with whom he had been living beneath the spout of a railroad water tank until she was almost suffocated.

Democrats of the Second appellate district nominated Judge Willis L. Hoopes, as a candidate for judge of the Kentucky court of appeals. The convention was held at Bowling Green, and all the counties in the district were represented save Breckinridge and Edmonson.

Newport, Ky., has a magistrate who will not, or rather prefers not, to perform a marriage ceremony. His name is Justice Robinson. He says such ceremony is too sacred and should only be performed by a minister of the gospel. He told of a man who was a relative or friend of his should be married by a magistrate.

The state weather bulletin, just issued, shows that pasturage in California is getting scarce, drying rapidly in the foothills and the valleys. The central and southern portions of the state are suffering more from the drought the Sacramento valley. The prospects for a good fruit crop are bright everywhere. The short crops of grain and hay are in excellent condition.

Major Helvert, teacher of languages at State college, Lexington, Ky., was stricken with paralysis Friday morning last. Major Helvert is about 60 years of age. He was said to be a German born man who was banished from his native land for taking part in the revolution of 1848. He was married to a Kentucky confederate regiment in the late war. He is well known among educational men.

A bill involving a crazier scheme than Coxey's was introduced in congress last week by Representative John Davis, one of the curious products of Kansas brought to the front by the Populist upheaval. He proposes that the federal government employ an industrial army of 500,000 to be employed on public works and be paid as regular soldiers. The small matter of the expense of the scheme is to be met by issuing $250,000,000 of fat money and annually thereafter $100,000,000.

The Danville Advocate says: R. A. Goode and family, after some time spent in Carroll county, Missouri, has returned to his old Kentucky home near here and asked to be forgiven. Among other products of Missouri that he did not take to is the weather. A drop of forty or fifty degrees while you are eating breakfast is a small matter, and twelve and fourteen inch ice is considered thin. In fact, the weather out there is frequently like that described in a recent letter from George Hackley, now in northern Mexico. He told of a man who came near being killed by a sunstroke one morning, but recovered from the effects of the heat in the afternoon, only to be frozen to death that night.

GOOD ROADS.

One county in Alabama has appropriated $20,000 for good roads, the taxpayers believing that the sum expended in this way will be a first class investment.—E.S.

The foregoing excerpt is only one of the many instances that have come under our observation during the past few weeks, and it shows plainly that the entire country is being awakened to the necessity of bettering the condition of all country roads, as well as those of the towns.

For fully six months in the year farmers of this section find it almost impossible to bring their produce to market, and these are the very months when produce is in greatest demand and the farmers then have more time to attend to it.

Let the people of Hazel Green and Wolfe county wake up to the important fact that good roads at all seasons of the year are a blessing and of great benefit to all.

It is quite true that our grandfathers hauled heavy loads over these same roads year after year and never complained, but we are now living in a progressive age, and what seemed a great benefit to our grandfathers, and even fathers, is now considered too far behind civilization.

Not only do good roads facilitate the bringing of produce to market at all times, but they also enhance the value of property. Prospectors and home-seekers going to a country where bad roads are the predominant soon turn back and look for better localities, where they can get to market without danger of losing their teams or breaking down their wagons by getting stuck in the mud. Now is the time to go to work and do something toward bettering the condition of the roads in the county, and in a short while everybody will wonder why it was not done sooner.

CAMPTON IS THE PLACE

Where the Democratic Congressional Convention Will be Held July 10.

The members of the Democratic committee of the Tenth congressional district met in this city Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of selecting a time, place and manner for nominating a candidate for congress. The committee was deputed for several hours on the motion to hold a primary election all over the district, and the amendment to hold a convention, the vote being 10 to 8. Some of the committee insisted on Chairman Vansant casting the deciding vote as chairman, but that gentleman declined his right to vote as chairman of his county and also as chairman of the committee, where there was a tie; so the matter rested as it was, until Judge H. H. French, of this city, made a motion that a district convention be held, and leave it optional with the county committees of the several counties as to how delegates should be selected, by primary election, precinct meetings or mass convention. This motion was adopted.

Then, after several ballots were taken at the French county convention, a district convention was held, and what date, Campton, Wolfe county, was selected as the place and Tuesday, July 10th, the time.

In each county committee call a primary election or precinct meetings, same will be held on the fourth Saturday in June, and on Tuesday following the precinct delegates will assemble at the county seats and select delegates to the general convention. Should the county committees call a mass convention, same shall be held at the county seat on the fourth Saturday in June, and delegates selected to the general convention, thus dispensing with the necessity of a meeting on the first Tuesday in July.—Sentinel-Examiner.

District Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic committee of the Tenth congressional district, held at Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 17th, 1894, all the members were present in person or by proxy. On motion it was Resolved, That a convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for congressman be held at the town of Campton on the second Tuesday in July, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., and the delegates thereto shall be chosen in each county on the fourth Saturday in June at 2 o'clock p. m. The Democratic committee of each county shall determine the manner of selecting delegates, either by primary election, mass convention, or precinct meetings. If the latter mode is designated, the delegates selected at the precinct meetings shall meet at the county seat on the Tuesday following to select delegates to the district convention. If a primary election is held, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to receive the vote of the county in the district convention.

R. H. VANSANT, Chm.

H. R. FRENCH, Sec'y.

From a Prominent Farmer.

Mr. Alex. Patterson, of Hedrick, Iowa, writes, under date of April 10, as follows: "After a thorough test of Quinn's Ointment I will say that it is the only preparation I have ever used with satisfactory results, and is what horses have long been in want of. My stable will never be without it." For cures, aphthae, sprains, indurated swellings, and other ailments. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sent by mail or express for 25 cents per tin. Address: R. H. Edly & Co., Whitehall, N. Y., unless you can obtain it from your druggist. For sale by John M. Rose.

FOR SALE—About 500,000 feet of pine and poplar timber near the mouth of Swift's creek and about one mile from Red river. For terms see

S. P. HOWE, Campton, Ky.

MORGAN COUNTY NEWS.

Scotch's sunshine. Eli Phipps had a fine young horse crippled last week by jumping.

Dr. H. G. and Nelson Chaney, sr., left Sunday morning for Pike county, whither they went horse trading.

J. M. Long returned from Mt. Sterling court last week, where he had some stock on the market. He reports dull sales.

Thomas Tipton was tried before Squire Blankenship, last Friday, for disturbing Kale Nickell and family, and was fined $5 and cost.

The Christian brethren have organized a Sunday school at Salem, in the Amynx school house, on Red river, and are fast progressing in the study of the sacred scriptures.

There is a right smart stir in Morgan now for a railroad and a railroad tax, too, but I think the people of Morgan county have too much sense to ever vote such a thing as a railroad tax upon themselves. I can speak for the people of Upper grassy precinct that there will never be a vote cast in favor of a railroad tax in it, although there are a great many people in Morgan who have been led by party politicians and a few insignificant townsmen of this county, and who will always continue the same way. If we judge from the present state of affairs, the people of this precinct are not only opposed to a railroad tax, but they are opposed to those who are in favor of it, and I will give $10 to the candidate who is in favor of a railroad tax for every vote he receives in this precinct at the November election, 1894. MATT.

WHY SUFFER

From that old complaint, when you can be permanently cured by an

ELECTROPOISE?

Others have been cured, why not you?

Disease Cured Without Medicine?

Not an electric belt or battery, but a simple home treatment, which causes the entire body of the patient to absorb

OXYGEN

Ask your neighbor about it; if he can not tell you write to us for one of our books—sent free.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., March 19, 1894.

Messrs. DuBois & Webb, Louisville, Ky.

Gentlemen—Through the kindness of Mr. Spencer Cooper, editor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, I was afforded an opportunity to try the efficacy of your "Electropoise," and I must say that it acted like magic—almost a miracle to me. I was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism on the 5th inst., and in 24 hours my legs were swollen and my limbs ached with pain almost unbearable. I had no use of elbow, hips, knees or feet, and in this helpless condition I continued to suffer until the 9th, when Mr. Cooper came and offered to use the Electropoise. I had no faith whatever, but like a drowning man catching at a straw, consented to its use. In four hours the pain left my leg to which the "poise was attached, and I continued to grow better until the following Monday, when I was able to sit up all day, and had not a pain about me. Today (19th) I resume my business, and feel as well as I ever did. I should add that I just two years ago I was confined to my bed for four months by a similar attack which the poise might have cured in four days. I BELIEVE now, and hope all who are afflicted as I was will try the same remedy. Respectfully yours, J. S. DAY.

We are acquainted with the facts in this case, and can vouch for the truth of the above. J. TAYLOR DAY. JNO. H. PIERATT, D. B. JAMES.

Nothing has ever received so many testimonials from trustworthy persons, many of whom are known to us—Western Recorder, Louisville.

The Electropoise is a mystery to me—almost a miracle.—(Elder) John I. Rodgers.

In one night the Electropoise relieved me completely. If the latter mode is designated, the delegates selected at the precinct meetings shall meet at the county seat on the Tuesday following to select delegates to the district convention. If a primary election is held, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to receive the vote of the county in the district convention.

A friend of mine was entirely cured of the opium habit by the Electropoise.—Rev. W. B. Rivers, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

The Electropoise is a wonderful instrument, and it is more wonderful as to how it works than I do to describe it.—E. C. Briley (Pilot), Louisville, Ky.

Address DuBois & Webb, 509 Fourth Street, Louisville, Ky.

A. FLOYD BYRD, Campton, Ky. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Abstracts of title furnished, collections made and prompt returns guaranteed. Connected with the law firm of Wood & Day Mt. Sterling, Ky., in all practices.

A. HOWARD STAMPER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, CAMPTON, KY.

Will practice in the courts of Wolfe and the adjoining counties. All business entrusted to our care will receive prompt attention.

FOR FINE JOB PRINTING, CALL AT THIS OFFICE.

OUR OVERCOATS

—AT—

HALF-PRICE

—FOR—

THIRTY DAYS!

None reserved! Everything goes!

Every Coat marked in plain figures. You divide the former price by 2 and get the price NOW.

L. G. STRAUS,

LEADING

Clothiers,

Tailors,

Furnishers,

Main and Limestone Streets, LEXINGTON, KY.

A CITY STORE AT YOUR DOOR.

For the benefit of the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity, I have opened a GENERAL FURNISHING GOODS STORE at my residence in Hazel Green, and will carry a complete line of the following articles, which will be sold at the LOWEST PRICES, viz:

Ladies' Hats, Silks and Velvets, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Ladies' Hats, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Ladies' Hats, Whole Bone Casings, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Ladies' Hats, Laces, Embroideries, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Ladies' Hats, Dress Trimmings, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Ladies' Hats, Ladies' Slippers, Complete line of Hosiery, Ladies' Hats, Elastic, etc., etc.

Buy Your Hats of Me, and Get Them Trimmed Free of Charge. My stock will embrace every article of Ladies' wear, in the latest style just from the city, as well as many other notions too numerous to mention. I will also do DRESS-MAKING, and will cut and make dresses to suit the LOWEST PRICES. Best system of cutting by the Buddington Cutting Machine, which was awarded first premium at the World's Fair, 1893. See Miss LAURA RAWLINGS, of Covington, Ky., well and favorably known to the ladies of this vicinity, will be my assistant. Your trade is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed. Very respectfully,

Mrs. FRED DAY.

I want all your Good Butter, and will pay 12-15c. a pound for it.

Eggs 8-13 cents.

And when you want to get the BEST GOODS for the LEAST MONEY, you will find that I can accommodate you in every particular. I have a large stock to select from, and whether you buy or not I will be pleased to see you every time you come to town.

Wishing your continued good will and patronage, I remain, Yours to please, JOHN M. ROSE.

Hazel Green, Ky., Jan. 26, 1894.

Times are hard and money is pressed, but I'd like to have a little money now.

HOFFMAN'S Insurance Agency.

FIRE. LIFE. ACCIDENT.

The Safest, Best and MOST RELIABLE Agency in Eastern Kentucky. Rates Reasonable.

ASSETS OVER $260,000.00. LOSSES PAID 275,000.00.

Address A. HOFFMAN, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

J. TAYLOR DAY,

Dealer in General Merchandise on a Cash Basis. Largest Stock. Lowest Prices.

THE HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, : : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
THURSDAY, : April 26, 1894.

YOU'LL FIND IT HERE.

Hardin county, Kentucky, already has an announced candidate for the legislature.

The Franklin county (Ky.) grand jury returned 106 indictments at its recent session.

Ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis has been appointed United States senator from North Carolina, to succeed the late Senator Vance.

Henry Bowling, once a convict, died at Mt. Sterling for killing Sen. Brown in 1892, received only a ten years' sentence on the second trial.

Three moonshine distilleries and a large quantity of liquor were destroyed in Perry and Leslie counties, Kentucky, last week by revenue officials.

Peter Mortel, a dissolute St. Louis shoemaker, committed suicide by taking poison. He pawned his wife's wedding ring for money to buy the drug.

Money is so scarce in some sections of the mountains that the editor of one of our exchanges says he will take on subscription anything that he can eat or wear.

This year, according to the entomologists, the seventeen-year locusts and their young or thirteen-year consorts will spend the summer with us, beginning in late May.

Saloons in Ohio will hereafter be carried on as openly as any other business. The new law prohibits screens, curtains or other devices to hide the interior of a room where liquor is sold.

During a storm near Gridley, Ill., lightning struck a barn owned by Richard Hesse. The building was destroyed and a hired man named Rench, who was stunned, was burned to death.

A jurymen in Missouri pleaded in extenuation of an act of contempt of court that he had the choice between that and contempt of wife, he rather thought the court would be more merciful.

A prominent Clark county farmer, who has given the matter a practical test, says there is more money in five acres of a well cultivated apple orchard than there is in twenty acres of cotton.

During the past week eleven industrial plants throughout the country have shut down, while thousands of laboring men, giving employment to 5,000 persons who were in enforced idleness.

Several months ago Laurence Patterson killed Charles Hines, George Patterson, Pulaski county, Ky., and last week the jury found Patterson guilty and sentenced him to imprisonment for two years in the penitentiary.

Senator Palmer introduced a bill in the senate repealing the state bank tax, but prohibiting the issuing of money by state banks, insuring institutions or by any other corporation or person except national banks.

Congressman Berry, of the Sixth district, says he has not abandoned hope of a bigger appropriation for Kentucky river improvements, and will urge the committee to vote at least $500,000 as Kentucky's part of this session's appropriations.

Cincinnati physicians say that there is an epidemic of bowel and stomach trouble in that city, and that it is largely due to the impure condition of the water supply.

The only safe-guard, they claim, is to boil the water before drinking it.

A mob of Ohio men, women and children, led by the injured wife, stoned a faithless husband from the town of Desher, and held the woman with whom he had been living beneath the spout of a railroad water tank until she was almost drowned.

Democrats of the Second appellate district nominated Judge William L. Evers, a candidate for judge of the Kentucky court of appeals. The convention was held at Bowling Green, and all the counties in the district were represented save Breckinridge and Edmonson.

Newport, Ky., has a magistrate who will not, or rather prefers not, to perform a marriage ceremony. His name is Justice Robinson. He says the ceremony is too sacred and should only be performed by a minister of the gospel. He says if he had the say no relative or friend of his would be married by a magistrate.

The state weather bulletin, just issued, shows that pasture in California is getting scarce, drying rapidly in the foothills and the valleys. The central and southern portions of the state are suffering more from the drought the Sacramento valley. The prospects for a good fruit crop are bright everywhere. The short crops of grain and hay are in excellent condition.

Major Helveti, teacher of languages at State college, Lexington, Ky., was stricken with paralysis Friday morning last. Major Helveti is about sixty-nine years old and is said to be a German who was taken to the front by his native land for taking part in the revolution of 1848. He was major of a Kentucky cavalry regiment in the civil war. He is well known among educational men.

A bill involving a crazier scheme than Coxey's was introduced in congress last week by Representative John Davis, one of the entrepreneurs of Kansas brought to the front by the Populist upheaval. He proposes that the secretary of war enlist an industrial army of 500,000, to be employed on public works and be paid as regular soldiers. The small matter of the expense of the scheme is to be met by issuing $250,000,000 of fiat money and annually thereafter $100,000,000.

The Danville Advocate says: R. A. Goode and family, after some time spent in Carroll county, Missouri, has returned to his old Kentucky home near here and is asked to be forgiven. Among other products of Missouri that he did not take to the weather. A drop of forty or more degrees when he was eating breakfast is a small matter, and twelve and fourteen inch ice is considered thin. In fact, the weather out there is frequently like that described in a recent letter from George Hackley, now in northern Mexico. He told of a man who came near being killed by a sunstroke one morning, but recovered from the effects of the heat in the afternoon, only to be frozen to death that night.

GOOD ROADS.

One county in Alabama has appropriated $20,000 for good roads, the taxpayers believing that the sum expended in this way will be a first class investment.—Ex.

The foregoing excerpt is only one of the many instances that have come under our observation during the past few weeks, and it shows plainly that the entire country is being awakened to the necessity of bettering the condition of all country roads, as well as those of the towns. For fully six months in the year farmers of this section find it almost impossible to bring their produce to market, and these are the very months when produce is in greatest demand and the farmers then have more time to attend to it. Let the people of Hazel Green and Wolfe county wake up to the important fact that good roads at all seasons of the year are a blessing and of great benefit to all. It is quite true that our grandfathers hauled heavy loads over these same roads year after year and never complained, but we are now living in a progressive age, and what seemed a great benefit to our grandfathers, and even fathers, is now considered too far behind civilization. Not only do good roads facilitate the bringing of produce to market at all times, but they also enhance the value of property. Prospectors and home-seekers going into a country where bad roads are predominant soon turn back and look for better localities, where they can get to market without danger of losing their teams or breaking down their wagons by getting stuck in the mud. Now is the time to get to work and do something toward bettering the condition of the roads in the county, and in a short while everybody will wonder why it was not done sooner.

CAMPTON IS THE PLACE

Where the Democratic Congressional Convention Will be Held July 10.

The members of the Democratic committee of the Tenth congressional district met in this city Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of selecting a time, place and manner for nominating a candidate for congress. The committee was despatched for several hours on the mission to hold a primary election all over the district, and the amendment to hold a convention, the vote being a tie—8 and 8. Some of the committee insisted on Chairman Vause casting the deciding vote as chairman, but that gentleman doubted his right to vote as chairman of his county and also as chairman of the committee, where there was a tie; so the matter rested as it was, until Judge H. R. French, of this city, made a motion that a district convention be held, and leave it optional with the county committee of the several counties as to how delegates should be selected, by primary election, precinct meetings or mass convention. The motion was adopted.

Then, after several ballots were taken as to where the convention should be held, and what date, Campton, Wolfe county, was selected as the place and Tuesday, July 10th, the time.

In case a county committee call a primary election or precinct meetings, same will be held on the fourth Saturday in June, and on Tuesday following the precinct delegates will assemble at the county seats and select delegates to the general convention. Should the county committees call a mass convention, same shall be held at the county seats the fourth Saturday in June, and delegates selected to the general convention, thus dispensing with the necessity of a meeting on the first Tuesday in July.—Sentinel Democrat.

District Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic committee of the Tenth congressional district held at Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 17th, 1894, all the members were present in person or by proxy. On motion it was resolved: That a convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for congressman be held at the town of Campton on the second Tuesday in July, next, at 10 o'clock a. m., and the delegates thereto shall be chosen in each county on the fourth Saturday in June at 2 o'clock p. m. The Democratic committee of each county shall determine the manner of selecting delegates, either by primary election, mass convention, or precinct conventions. If the latter mode is desired, the delegates selected at the precinct meetings shall meet at the county seat on the Tuesday following to select and instruct the delegates to the district convention. At a primary election, if held, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to receive the vote of the county in the district convention.

R. H. VANSANT, Ch'm.

H. R. FRENCH, Sec'y.

From a Prominent Farmer.

Mr. Alex. Patterson, of Hedrick, Iowa, writes, under date of April 10, as follows: "I read a thoroughgoing account of the trial I will say that it is the only preparation I have ever used with satisfactory results, and that it has been a great help to me. My stable will never be without it." For cures, splinters, sprains, windpuffs and all other ailments of horses and cattle, it is a sure satisfaction. Sent by mail or express prepaid upon receipt of $1.50. Address: W. E. Edy & Co., Whitehall, N. Y., where you can obtain it from your druggist. For sale by John M. Rose.

FOR SALE.—About 500,000 feet of pine and poplar timber near the mouth of Scott's creek and about one mile from Red river. For terms see

S. P. HOWE, Campton, Ky.

MORGAN COUNTY NEWS.

Sellers Sausine.

Elly Phillips had a fine young horse crippled last week by jumping.

Dr. H. G. and Nelson Chaney, sr., left Sunday morning for Pike county, where they went horse trading.

J. M. Long returned from Mt. Sterling court last week, where he had some stock on the market. He reports dull sales.

Thomas Tipton was tried before Squire Blankenship, last Friday, for disturbing Kale Nickell and family, and was fined $5 and cost.

The Christian brethren have organized a Sunday school at Salem, in the Amys school house, on Red river, and are fast progressing in the study of the sacred scriptures.

There is a right smart stir in Morgan now for a railroad and a railroad tax, too, but I think the people of Morgan county have too much sense to ever vote such a thing as a railroad tax upon themselves. I can speak for the people of Upper Grassy precinct that there will never be a vote cast in favor of a railroad tax in it, although there are a great many people in Morgan who have been led by petty politicians and a few insignificant townsmen of this county, and who will always continue the same way. If we judge from the present state of affairs, the people of this precinct are not only opposed to a railroad tax, but they are opposed to those who are in favor of it, and I will give $10 to the candidate who is in favor of a railroad tax for every vote he receives in this precinct at the November election, 1894.

MATE.

WHY SUFFER

From that old complaint, when you can be permanently cured by an

ELECTROPOISE?

Others have been cured, why not you?

Disease Cured Without Medicine?

Not an electric belt or battery, but a simple home treatment, which cures the entire body of the patient to absorb

OXYGEN

Ask your neighbor about it; if he can not tell you write to us for one of our books—sent free.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., March 19, 1894.

Most, Dulles & Webb, Louisville, Ky.

Gentlemen.—Through the kindness of Mr. Spencer Cooper, editor of the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, I was afforded an opportunity to try the efficacy of your "Electropoise," and I must say that it acted like magic—almost a miracle, indeed. I was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism on the 26th inst., and in 24 hours my legs were swollen and my limbs ached with pain almost unbearable. I had no use of elbow, hips, knees or feet, and in this helpless condition I continued to suffer until the 28th, when Mr. Cooper came and offered to use the Electropoise. I had no faith whatever, but like a drowning man catching at a straw, consented to its use. In four hours the pain left my legs to subside, the "pains" were attached, and I continued to grow better until the following Monday, when I was able to sit up (day) and had not a pain about me. Today (19th) I resumed my business, and feel as well as I ever did. I should add that just two years ago, I was confined to my bed for four months by a similar attack, but the pain might have cured in four days. I BELIEVE now, and hope all who are afflicted as I was will try the same remedy.

Very truly yours, E. N. DAY.

We are acquainted with the facts in this case, and can vouch for the truth of the above.

J. TAYLOR DAY.

JOS. H. PIERATT.

D. B. JAMES.

Nothing has ever received so many testimonials from trustworthy persons, many of whom are known to us.—Western Recorder, Louisville.

The Electropoise is a mystery to me—almost a miracle.—(Editor John I. Rodgers.)

In one night the Electropoise relieved me of congestion of the brain and vertigo.—Rev. T. H. Mous, Covington, Ky.

A friend of mine was entirely cured of the sperm habit with the Electropoise.—Rev. W. B. Bice, Hestonville, Ky.

The Electropoise is a wonderful instrument, and it is more wonderful as to how it does its work, yet it does it.—T. E. C. Brinley (Flows), Louisville, Ky.

Address: DE BOIS & WEBB,

509 Fourth Street, LOUISVILLE, KY.

A. FLOYD BYRD, Campton, Ky.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Abstracts of title furnished, collections made and prompt returns guaranteed. Connected with the law firm of Wood & Day Mt. Sterling, Ky., in civil practice.

A. HOWARD STAMPER,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

CAMPTON, KY.

Will practice in the courts of Wolfe and the adjoining counties. All business entrusted to our care will receive prompt attention.

FOR FINE JOB PRINTING,

CALL AT THIS OFFICE.

OUR OVERCOATS

—AT—
HALF-PRICE

—FOR—
THIRTY DAYS!

None reserved!

Everything goes!

Every Coat marked in plain figures. You divide the former price by 2 and get the price NOW.

L. G. STRAUS,

LEADING

Clothiers,

Tailors,

Furnishers,

Main and Limestone Streets,

LEXINGTON, KY.

A CITY STORE AT YOUR DOOR.

For the benefit of the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity, I have opened a GENERAL FURNISHING GOODS STORE, at my residence in Hazel Green, and will carry a complete line of the following articles, which will be sold at the LOWEST PRICES, viz:

Ladies' Hats, Skirts and Velvets, Ladies' Gloves, Underwear, Handkerchiefs, White Bones, Whale Bone Casings, Lace, Embroideries, Veilings, Infants' Caps, Dress Trimmings, Umbrellas, Towels, Ladies' Toilet, Curling Irons, Bronzing Paints, Silk Laces—black and white, Ladies' Slippers, Complete line of Hosiery, Elastic, etc., etc.

Buy Your Hats Me, and Get Them Trimmed Free of Charge.

My stock will contain every article of Ladies' wear, in the latest style just from the city, as well as many other notions too numerous to mention. I will also do DRESS-MAKING, and will cut and make dresses to suit the hard-time prices. Best system of cutting by the Boudoir Cutting Machine, which was awarded first premium at the World's Fair, 1893. 257 Miss LAURA RAWLINGS, of Covington, Ky., well and favorably known to the ladies of this vicinity, will be my assistant. Your trade is respectfully solicited, and satisfaction guaranteed. Very respectfully,

Mrs. FRED DAY.

I want all your Good Butter, and will pay 12 1/2c. a pound for it.

Eggs 8-13 cents.

And when you want to get the BEST GOODS for the LEAST MONEY, you will find that I can accommodate you in every particular. I have a large stock to select from, and whether you buy or not I will be pleased to see you every time you come to town.

Wishing your continued good will and patronage, I remain,

Yours to please,

JOHN M. ROSE.

Hazel Green, Ky., Jan. 26, 1894.

Times are hard and I haven't pressed you, but I'd like to have a little money now.

HOFFMAN'S

Insurance Agency.

FIRE. LIFE. ACCIDENT.

The Safest, Best and MOST RELIABLE Agency in Eastern Kentucky. Rates Reasonable.

ASSETS OVER $260,000.00

LOSSES PAID 275,000.00

Address A. HOFFMAN, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

J. TAYLOR DAY,

Dealer in General Merchandise

on a Cash Basis.

Largest Stock.—Lowest Prices.

THE HERALD

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH M. KENDALL, of Floyd county, Kentucky, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce MARCUS C. LISLE, of Clark county, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce SAM HENRY WILSON as a candidate for sheriff of Wolfe county, subject only to the will of the people at the polls in November, 1894.

For Justice of the Peace.

We are authorized to announce R. M. CECIL, of Stillwater, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Holly and Stillwater district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26.

We are authorized to announce J. H. VEST, of Gilmore Creek, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26.

We are authorized to announce JAMES H. SEBASTIAN, of Daysboro, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26, 1894.

Born, on the 19th inst., to the wife of Haskell Sallie, a boy.

Bruce Marcum, of Jackson, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Floyd Day, of Clay City, was in town several days this week on business.

A number of our male citizens were in attendance at circuit court this week.

Charlie Keyser, of West Liberty, was a guest of the Day House Tuesday night.

The whole-souled H. B. Maupin sold several good bills for D. H. Carpenter, while here last week.

Wm. H. Cord will talk at the Christian church next Sunday night. Subject: "The Lord's Supper."

Jovial John H. Pieratt has been drawn as a petit juror for the May term of the U. S. court at Covington.

The Clark county fair association met on the 18th inst., and elected officers and directors. The fair is to begin August 22 and continue five days.

The merchants of the mountains are requested to peruse the adv. of H. & G. Feder, Cincinnati, and when needing anything in their line send them an order.

Failing to receive our regular Campton correspondence, we are unable to give any court news this week, but will endeavor to have a full report for our next issue.

The Democratic committee of Wolfe county met at the court house, on Monday, May 7, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested.

H. F. PIERATT, Chairman.

All mountain people who visit Cincinnati will find no better place than the St. James Hotel to stop at. No better hostelry can be found anywhere, while the gentlemanly managers excel themselves in providing for the comfort of their guests. See card in THE HERALD.

Hon. Jo M. Kendall spent Saturday night in town en route to Campton to be present at the opening of circuit court and renew acquaintance with his many friends. Jo is looking well and feels sanguine in regard to his chances in the congressional race.

A letter from Mr. Spencer Cooper informs us that he will return home tomorrow (Friday), accompanied by his better half. He visited Cincinnati while there, several fonts of new job type, a press, several fonts of new job type, and a large stock of fine stationery, etc., and now is the accepted time to send in your orders for all kinds of printing.

The attention of all the readers of THE HERALD is called to the liberal offer made by the Racket Store, Lexington. Mr. J. D. Purcell wishes to find out how many people read THE HERALD, besides making the greatest bargains to all his customers. Remember the place, 11, 13 customers. Remember the place, 11, 13 and 15 W. Main street, Lexington, when you want bargains in dry goods, etc.

Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Mayslick, will be here on May 8, and will begin a series of meetings at the Christian church on the following night. Let every person arrange to hear him throughout the meeting, and all will surely be benefited. He preaches the gospel in its purity and simplicity. All who heard him when here, last year speak in glowing terms of him, and we believe he will meet with a warm and hearty welcome at his return.

Elsewhere in THE HERALD will be found the adv. of the Merchants Job Lot House, Cincinnati, which we commend to all merchants in the mountains.

Louis Stix & Co., Cincinnati, have a card in this issue of THE HERALD, and all merchants would do well to get their prices before sending their orders elsewhere.

Word reached here yesterday that a wedding took place at Ezell, to which Miss Genie Cockrell and Mr. John Rice were the high contracting parties. No doubt "Blurt" will furnish us with the particulars next week.

Through the courtesy of Hon. M. C. Lisle we are in receipt of a handsomely bound volume of the obsequies of the late Hon. J. W. Kendall. The frontispiece is a true and life-like steel engraving of Mr. Kendall, and is readily recognized by all who knew him.

The stockholders of the Hazel Green fair association will meet at the floral hall, on the fair grounds, on Saturday, May 5, 1894, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers and board of directors for the ensuing year.

H. F. PIERATT, President.

We heard it incidentally remarked the other day that within the past ten years thirty-two persons living in, and in the vicinity of, Hazel Green had withdrawn from active mercantile pursuits in the town, only one of whom retired with a competency sufficient to lead a life of ease.

Taking into consideration the hard times and scarcity of money among the farmers, W. T. Swango has reduced the price of service for his celebrated jack Rosco, to the low price of $6. This figure will bring him within the reach of all, and every breeder should take advantage of it.

A mare belonging to Rev. Willis F. Lykins, of Grassy, which was bred to Blue Grass Beauty last season, dropped a colt about ten days since which is said to be a perfect image of his sire. Blue Grass Beauty is the property of Ray Moss, and can be seen at W. T. Swango's stable in this place any day.

Word was brought to our city Monday that Sam Salyer, of West Liberty, resigned the office of county attorney for Morgan county, and our friend Isaac W. Rose, of Maytown, was appointed and sworn in to fill the vacancy. Ike is a candidate for the office at the coming election, and being very popular with the good people of Morgan, will no doubt be chosen for the full term.

An infant child of Boone Oldfield, living on Grassy, about four miles from Hazel Green, met a serious accident on Tuesday morning. During the absence of Mrs. Oldfield from the house, the child got hold of a rag and was firing it into the fire, when it was ignited, and almost instantly the child's clothing was in a blaze. Before aid could reach the unfortunate child it was severely burned about the face, arms and legs, but it is thought the child may recover.

Inasmuch as young folks will get married and go to housekeeping, we would refer them to our advertising columns and consult the numerous offers held out by the various merchants whose ads. can be found there. But some of the principal articles necessary for successful housekeeping are good furniture, a nice carpet and a good stove. For this reason we commend all our readers to the adv. of March's Furniture Store, Lexington, which will be found on the first page of THE HERALD.

Mrs. Lou Day requests us to say to the ladies of Hazel Green and the surrounding country that she has just opened a full and complete line of millinery, dry goods, notions, ladies' dress goods, etc., which she will sell at the lowest price for cash or produce—butter, lard, chickens, eggs, or anything she can use for the table. She has a nice line of trimmed and untrimmed hats, for spring and summer, which will be added to from time to time, so that the very latest styles can be found here. She also has a fine line of toilet articles.

J. Sylvester O'Hair, of Swango, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives in this section. Uncle Sylvester went west from here twenty-seven years ago, and this is the first visit he has made since his departure. He seems greatly impressed with the many improvements and changes that have taken place in Eastern Kentucky, and says it is the first place he ever saw a man trying to ride to Heaven on horseback, which scene he witnessed while on his way here. He lost sight of the rider in the clouds, and didn't know whether he made the trip or not. Unlike the rest of his folks, he is a Democrat from way back.

The declamatory contest held at the academy chapel last Friday evening for the purpose of selecting a man to represent the Hazel Green academy in the Blue Grass Declamatory league, was one of the most formidable in the history of the school and resulted in a victory for H. Clay Lacy, of Lacey Creek. The second award was not made, being divided between S. M. Nickell, of Index, and Jos. F. Taubee, of White Oak. The other speakers of the evening were A. C. Jones, Daysboro; E. W. McKinney, Owingsville and A. D. Lacy, Lickburg. While each of these young gentlemen did remarkably well, especial praise is due the winner and his two most formidable competitors. They showed themselves complete masters of their subjects and demonstrated to their select audience that mankind oratory is a thing much to be admired. THE HERALD congratulates Mr. Lacy upon his hard-earned victory and here's hoping he will carry off the honors at Winchester on June 1. The music by Miss Robertson and pupils, supplemented by the Academy Glee club, was another interesting feature of the entertainment. Their selections were fine and well rendered. The following schools are included in the league: Hazel Green academy; Harrodsburg city school; Harrodsburg academy; Danville city school; Hogestown academy; Danville; Cynthia city school; Lawrenceburg city school; Stanford city school; Lexington city school; and Allegheny academy, Lexington. Competent and impartial judges will be selected, and two gold medals will be awarded.

The grand opening of spring millinery goods of Mrs. Lou Day, last Monday, was a remarkable success, and the ladies who attended it gazed in wonderment at the beautiful array of bonnets, hats, ribbons, flowers, dress goods, etc., and were astounded that such elegant goods could be brought to Hazel Green. Mrs. Lou Day is never behind the times.

Academy Notes.

Logan Linden, of Lee City, is on the sick list this week.

Miss Mary Sarten, of West Liberty, enrolled on the 23d.

A. D. and F. C. Lacy spent Saturday and Sunday in West Liberty.

We understand that Wm. Culbertson has returned from his trip of "seeing the country." Would it not have been better had he remained in school?

Misses Emma Compton and Bertie Phillips, and H. C. Phillips, J. F. Taubee and S. F. Hamilton attended the funeral of Mr. Hanks, at Campton, last Sunday.

Prof. Doane and J. C. Fulk, of Campton, called at the academy on the 18th inst. The professor was pleased with our school, and spoke enthusiastically of the Academy Hymn.

H. Clay Lacy will represent us in the Bluegrass league contest, to be held at Winchester June 1. Should he not be able to go, either S. M. Nickell or Jos. F. Taubee will be the substitute.

Some of our young men have "quit school to raise a crop." We think they have made wrong calculations, for they fail to take up their full amounts; and they will probably fail to obtain certificates. Perhaps "raising crops" suits them better. ACADEMITE.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

Restores faded, thin, and gray hair to its original color, texture, and abundance; prevents it from falling out, checks tendency to baldness, and promotes a new and vigorous growth. A clean, safe, elegant, and economical hair-dressing.

Everywhere Popular

"Nine months after having the typhoid fever, my head was perfectly bald. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and before I had used half a bottle, the hair began to grow. Two more bottles brought out as good a head of hair as ever I had. On my recommendation, my brother William Craig made use of Ayer's Hair Vigor with the same good results."—Stephen Craig, 532 Charlotte st., Philadelphia, Pa.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists Everywhere.

JUDGE AMOS DAVIS, WEST LIBERTY, KY.

Bettman Bros. & Co. MANUFACTURERS OF CLOTHING, 96 West Pearl Street, CINCINNATI. The trade of Eastern Kentucky merchants is respectfully solicited.

T. C. JOHNSON, J. H. SWANGO, Campion, Hazel Green. JOHNSON & SWANGO, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Will practice in the Wolfe county and circuit courts. Collections promptly made and abstracts of title furnished on short notice.

Who Is Your Friend?

When this question goes around the Business Circle the answer comes back: "The one who can give the best values for the least money. Having been in the market at a season when the jobbers were cleaning up, I have been able to purchase some rare bargains, which shall be the gain of my customers. Give me your order while I quote you prices:

Ladies Cloaks.....	75 and up.	Men's Heavy Overcoats.....	$2.00 and up.
Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	.50 "	Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	.30 "
Men's Heavy Kip Boots.....	2.00 "	Men's Fine Shoes.....	1.00 "

Send a good Call at only 5 cents per yard.

NO TIME, but MORE GOODS FOR THE MONEY than can be had elsewhere.

Very respectfully, &c.,

G. W. ROBINSON,
CAMPTON, KY.

RACKET STORE,

11, 13 and 15 W. Main Street,
LEXINGTON, KY.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

The largest, cheapest and only Cash Store in Lexington. We want your trade and are prepared to show you the greatest selection of goods in the city. One large room devoted to Shoes, a second room is filled with Dry Goods, Notions, etc., while in the third room we carry an immense stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc. To ascertain how many of the readers of this paper deal with us we will allow a discount of 5 per cent to any customer bringing this advertisement when they deal with us. This offer good for two months only. Watch for prices in our new change.

J. D. PURCELL.

H. & G. FEDER, PRICES

165 & 167 Race Street, CINCINNATI, O.

The leading house for FANCY DRY GOODS, FURNISHING GOODS and NOTIONS. Always have Big Drives. Special attention to Mail Orders.

Spot Cash!

In justice to ourselves, we have adopted the Cash System! And every living creature that buys goods from this date will be required to pay

SPOT-CASH!

We do this because we are driven to it. Those who owe will not pay. When you read this ask yourself the question, "Do I owe Pieratt & Co. anything?"

And if so, don't wait to be dunned, but come and pay, or in 10 days you will hear it thunder!

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping to merit a good share of your trade, we are, Respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT & CO.

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS.

If you want new styles and the best goods, at bottom prices, you can always find them here at

CASSELL & PRICE'S,

16 and 18 West Main Street, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

DENTIST,

DR. J. F. LOCKHART, EZZEL, KY.

LOUIS STIX & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Dry Goods, NOTIONS, Etc.,

Third, Race and Union Sts., CINCINNATI, O.

We carry the goods that will suit your trade and our prices are THE LOWEST. Special attention given to mail orders.

WHEN YOU WANT A WATCH!

Or anything in the Jewelry line, let me know it. I will furnish you goods worth the money, and YOU will have GUARANTEE at home where you can use it.

Respectfully,
T. F. CARR,
THE JEWELER,
EZZEL, Morgan County, Ky.

J. H. PIERATT, Livery, Feed and Sale Stable,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Double and Single Rigs and Saddle Horses for hire. Parties conveyed to any point on reasonable terms.

I will also attend to all calls for teaming, and solicit business of this kind. Respectfully,
JOHN H. PIERATT.

JOHN M. ROSE,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Is the only firm in the town which handles the justly celebrated

Boots: and: Shoes

from the wholesale house of
C. P. Tracy & Co.,
PORTSMOUTH, OHIO.

When you want the BEST footwear give him a call. no. 4, 17

J. T. DAY,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Is the only merchant in Wolfe county who sells the celebrated

SOUTH BEND PLOW,

and he respectfully invites farmers to call and examine it before purchasing.

BEN WILLIAMSON & CO.,
CATLETTSBURG, KY.
Sole agents for Northeastern Kentucky.

H. B. MAUPIN, WITH D. H. CARPENTER,

WHOLESALE DRY GOODS,

NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c.

66, 17 CATLETTSBURG, KY.

THE HERALD

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce JOSEPH M. KENDALL, of Floyd county, Kentucky, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce MARCUS C. LISLE, of Clark county, as a candidate for Congress from the Tenth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Sheriff.

We are authorized to announce SAM HENRY WILSON as a candidate for sheriff of Wolfe county, subject only to the will of the people at the polls in November, 1894.

For Justice of the Peace.

We are authorized to announce R. M. CE. CH. of Sullivan, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Holly and Sullivan district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26.

We are authorized to announce J. H. WEST, of Gillmore Creek, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26.

We are authorized to announce JAMES H. SEBASTIAN, of Dayboro, as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for the Hazel Green and Lee City Magisterial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Primary election, May 26, 1894.

Born, on the 19th inst., to the wife of Haskell Sallie, a boy.

Bruce Marcum, of Jackson, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Floyd Day, of Clay City, was in town several days this week on business.

A number of our male citizens are in attendance at circuit court this week.

Charlie Keyser, of West Liberty, was a guest of the Day House Tuesday night.

The wholesaler H. B. Maupin sold several good bills for D. H. Carpenter, while here last week.

Wm. H. Cord will talk at the Christian church next Sunday night. Subject: "The Lord's Supper."

Jovial John H. Pieratt has been drawn as a petit juror for the May term of the U. S. court at Covington.

The Clark county fair association met on the 18th inst., and elected officers and directors. The fair is to begin August 22 and continue five days.

The merchants of the mountains are requested to peruse the adv. of H. & G. Feder, Cincinnati, and when needing anything in their line send them an order.

Failing to receive our regular Campton correspondence, we are unable to give any court news this week, but will endeavor to have a full report for our next issue.

The Democratic committee of Wolfe county will meet at the court house, in the town of Campton, on Monday, May 7, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested.

H. F. PIERATT, Chairman.

All mountain people who visit Cincinnati will find no better place than the St. James Hotel to stop at. No better hostelry can be found anywhere, while the gentlemen managers excel themselves in providing for the comfort of their guests. See card in THE HERALD.

Hon. Jo M. Kendall spent Saturday night in town en route to Campton to be present at the opening of circuit court and renew acquaintance with his many friends. Jo is looking well and feels sanguine in regard to his chances in the congressional race.

A letter from Mr. Spencer Cooper informs us that he will return home tomorrow (Friday), accompanied by his better-l. He visited Cincinnati while away and purchased a Campbell cylinder press, several fonts of new job type, a press, several fonts of new job type, a press, several fonts of new job type, and now is the accepted time to send in your orders for all kinds of printing.

The attention of all the readers of THE HERALD is called to the liberal offer made by the Racket Store, Lexington. Mr. J. D. Purcell wishes to find out how many people read THE HERALD, besides giving the greatest bargains to all his customers. Remember the place, 11, 13 and 15 West Main street, Lexington, when you want bargains in dry goods, etc.

Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Mayfield, will be here on May 8, and will begin a series of meetings at the Christian church on the following night. Let every person arrange to hear him throughout the meeting, and all will surely be benefited. He preaches the gospel in its purity and simplicity. All who heard him when here last year speak in glowing terms of him, and we believe he will meet with a warm and hearty welcome at his return.

Elsewhere in THE HERALD will be found the adv. of the Merchants Job Lot House, Cincinnati, which we commend to all merchants in the mountains.

Louis Stix & Co., Cincinnati, have a card in this issue of THE HERALD, and all merchants would do well to get their particulars before sending their orders elsewhere.

Word reached here yesterday that a wedding took place at Ezef, to which Miss Genie Cockrell and Mr. John Rice were the high contracting parties. No doubt "Blurt" will furnish us with the particulars next week.

Through the courtesy of Hon. M. C. Lisle we are in receipt of a handsomely bound volume of the obsequies of the late Hon. J. W. Kendall. The frontispiece is a true and life-like steel engraving of Mr. Kendall, and is readily recognized by all who knew him.

The stockholders of the Hazel Green fair association will meet at the floral hall, on the fair grounds, on Saturday, May 5, 1894, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers and board of directors for the ensuing year.

H. F. PIERATT, President.

We heard it incidentally remarked the other day that within the past ten years thirty-two persons living in, and in the vicinity of, Hazel Green had withdrawn from active mercantile pursuits in the town, only one of whom retired with a competency sufficient to lead a life of ease.

Taking into consideration the hard times and scarcity of money among the farmers, W. T. Swango has reduced the price of service for his celebrated jack, Bessie, to the low price of $6. This figure will bring him within the reach of all, and every breeder should take advantage of it.

A mare belonging to Rev. Willis F. Lykins, of Grassy, which was bred to Blue Grass Beauty last season, dropped a colt about ten days since which is said to be a perfect image of his sire. Blue Grass Beauty is the property of Ray Moss, and can be seen at W. T. Swango's stable in this place any day.

Word was brought to our city Monday that Sam Salter, of West Liberty, resigned the office of county attorney for Morgan county, and our friend Isaac W. Rose, of Maytown, was appointed and sworn in to fill the vacancy. He is a candidate for the office at the coming election, and being very popular with the good people of Morgan, will no doubt be chosen for the full term.

An infant child of Boone Oldfield, living on Grassy, about four miles from Hazel Green, met a serious accident on Tuesday morning. During the absence of Mrs. Oldfield from the house, the child got hold of a rag and was firing it into the fire, when it was ignited, and almost instantly the child's clothing was in a blaze. Before aid could reach the unfortunate child it was severely burned about the face, arms and legs, but it is thought the child may recover.

Inasmuch as young folks will get married and go to housekeeping, we would refer them to our advertising columns and consult the numerous offers held out by the various merchants whose ads. can be found there. But some of the principal articles necessary for successful housekeeping are good furniture, a nice carpet and a good stove. For this reason we commend all our readers to the adv. of March's Furniture Store, Lexington, which will be found on the first page of THE HERALD.

Mrs. Lou Day requests us to say to the ladies of Hazel Green and the surrounding country that she has just opened a full and complete line of millinery, dry goods, notions, ladies' dress goods, etc., which she will sell at the lowest price for cash or produce—butter, lard, chickens, eggs, or anything she can use for the table. She has a nice line of trimmed and untrimmed hats, for spring and summer, which will be added to from time to time, so that the very latest styles can be found here. She also has a fine line of toilet articles.

J. Sylvester O'Hair, of Swango, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives in this section. Uncle Sylvester went west from here twenty-seven years ago, and this is the first visit he has made since his departure. He seems greatly impressed with the many improvements and changes that have taken place in Eastern Kentucky, and says it is the first place he ever saw a man trying to ride to Heaven on horseback, which scene he witnessed while on his way here. He lost sight of the rider in the clouds, and don't no whether he made the trip or not. Unlike the rest of his folks, he is a Democrat from way back.

The declamatory contest held at the academy chapel last Friday evening for the purpose of selecting a man to represent the Hazel Green academy in the Blue Grass Declamatory league, was one of the most formidable in the history of the school and resulted in a victory for H. Clay Lacy, of Lacy Creek. The second award was not made, being divided between S. M. Nickell, of Index, and Jos. F. Taulbee, of White Oak. The other speakers of the evening were A. C. Jones, Dayboro; E. W. McKinney, Owingville; and A. D. Lacy, Lickburg. While each of these young gentlemen did remarkably well, especial praise is due the winner and his two most formidable competitors. They showed themselves complete masters of their subjects and demonstrated to their select audience that mountain oratory is a thing much to be admired. THE HERALD congratulates Mr. Lacy upon his hard-earned victory and hopes he will carry off the honors at Winchester on June 1. The music by Miss Robertson and pupils, supplemented by the Academy Glee club, was another interesting feature of the entertainment. Their selections were fine and well rendered. The following schools are included in the league: Hazel Green academy; Harrodsburg city school; Harrodsburg academy; Danville city school; Hogsett academy, Danville; Cynthiana city school; Lawrenceburg city school; Stanford city school; Lexington city school; and Alleghen academy, Lexington. Competent and impartial judges will be selected, and two gold medals will be awarded.

The grand opening of spring millinery goods of Mrs. Lou Day, last Monday, was a remarkable success, and the ladies who attended it gazed in wonderment at the beautiful array of bonnets, hats, ribbons, flowers, dress goods, etc., and were astounded that such elegant goods could be brought to Hazel Green. Mrs. Lou Day is never behind the times.

Academy Notes.
Logan Linden, of Lee City, is on the sick list this week.

Miss Mary Sartan, of West Liberty, enrolled on the 25th.

A. D. and F. C. Lacy spent Saturday and Sunday in West Liberty.

We understand that Wm. Culbertson has returned from his trip of "seeing the country." Would it not have been better had he remained in school?

Misses Emma Congleton and Bertie Phillips, and H. C. Phillips, J. F. Taulbee and S. F. Hamilton attended the funeral of Mr. Hanks, at Campton, last Sunday.

Prof. Doane and J. C. Fulk, of Campton, called at the academy on the 18th inst. The professor was pleased with our school, and spoke enthusiastically of the Academy House.

H. Clay Lacy will represent us in the Bluegrass league contest, to be held at Winchester June 1. Should he not be able to go, either S. M. Nickell or Jos. F. Taulbee will be there.

Some of our young men have "quit school to raise a crop." We think they have made wrong calculations, for they fail to take up the full amount, and they will probably fail to obtain certificates. Perhaps "raising crop" suits them better. ACADEMITE.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

Restores faded, thin, and gray hair to its original color, texture, and abundance; prevents it from falling out, checks tendency to baldness, and promotes a new and vigorous growth. A clean, safe, elegant, and economical hair-dressing.

Everywhere Popular

"Nine months after having the typhoid fever, my head was perfectly bald. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and before I had used half a bottle, the hair began to grow. Two more bottles brought out as good a head of hair as ever I had. On my recommendation, my brother William Craig made use of Ayer's Hair Vigor with the same good results."—Stephen Craig, 833 Charlotte st., Philadelphia, Pa.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists Every where.

JUDGE AMOS DAVIS, OF WEST LIBERTY, KY., WITH—

Bettman Bros. & Co. MANUFACTURERS OF CLOTHING,

96 West Pearl Street, CINCINNATI. The trade of Eastern Kentucky merchants is respectfully solicited.

T. C. JOHNSON, of H. SWANGO, Cambridge, and H. SWANGO, JOHNSON & SWANGO, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

Will practice in the Wolfe county and circuit courts. Collections promptly made and abstracts of title furnished on short notice.

Who Is Your Friend?

When this question goes around the Business Circle the answer comes back, "The one who can give the best values for the least money." Having been in the market at a season when the jobbers were cleaning up, I have been able to purchase some rare bargains, which shall be the gain of my customers. Give me your ears while I quote you prices:

Ladies' Heavy Overcoats.....	75 and up.	Men's Heavy Overcoats.....	$2.00 and up.
Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	.90	Ladies' Fine Shoes.....	.90
Ladies' Coarse Shoes.....	.50	Men's Fine Shoes.....	1.00
Men's Heavy Kip Boots.....	2.00

NO TIME, but MORE GOODS FOR THE MONEY than can be had elsewhere. Very respectfully, &c.,

G. W. ROBINSON,
CAMPTON, KY.

RACKET STORE,

11, 13 and 15 W. Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

The largest, cheapest and only Cash Store in Lexington. We want your trade and are prepared to show you the greatest selection of goods in the city. One large room devoted to Shoes, a second room is filled with Dry Goods, Notions, etc., while in the third room we carry an immense stock of Groceries, Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc. To ascertain how many of the readers of this paper deal with us, we will allow a discount of 5 percent to any customer bringing this advertisement when they deal with us. This offer good for two months only. Watch for prices in our new change.

J. D. PURCELL.

H. & G. FEDER, PRICES

165 & 167 Race Street, CINCINNATI, O.

The leading house for FANCY DRY GOODS, FURNISHING GOODS and NOTIONS. Always have Big Prices. Special attention to Mail Orders.

Spot Cash!

In justice to ourselves, we have adopted the Cash System! And every living creature that buys goods from this date will be required to pay

SPOT-CASH!

We do this because we are driven to it. Those who owe will not pay. When you read this ask yourself the question, "Do I owe Pieratt & Co. anything?"

And if so, don't wait to be dunned, but come and pay, or in 10 days you will hear it thunder!

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping to merit a good share of your trade, we are,

Respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT & CO.

DRY GOODS & NOTIONS.

If you want new styles and the best goods, at bottom prices, you can always find them there at

CASSELL & PRICE'S,

16 and 18 West Main Street, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

DR. J. F. LOCKHART,
DENTIST,
EZZEL, KY.

J. T. DAY,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
Is the only merchant in Wolfe county who sells the celebrated

SOUTH BEND PLOW,

and he respectfully invites farmers to call and examine it before purchasing.

BEN WILLIAMSON & CO.,
CATLETTSBURG, KY.
Sole agents for Northeastern Kentucky.

H. B. MAUPIN,
WITH
D. H. CARPENTER,
WHOLESALE DRY GOODS,
NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c.
CATLETTSBURG, KY.

LOUIS STIX & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Dry Goods, NOTIONS, Etc.,

Third, Race and Union Sts., CINCINNATI, O.

We carry the goods that will suit your trade and our prices are THE LOWEST. Special attention given to mail orders.

WHEN YOU WANT A WATCH!

Or anything in the Jewelry line, let me know it. I will furnish you goods worth the money, and YOU will have GUARANTEE at home where you can use it.

Respectfully,
T. F. CARR,
THE JEWELER,
EZZEL, Morgan County, Ky.

J. H. PIERATT,

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable, HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Double and Single Rigs and Saddle Horses for hire. Parties conveyed to any point on reasonable terms.

Will also attend to all calls for auctioneering, and solicit business of this kind. Respectfully, &c.,
JOHN H. PIERATT.

JOHN M. ROSE,

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
Is the only firm in the town which handles the justly celebrated

Boots: and: Shoes

from the wholesale house of

C. P. Tracy & Co.,

PORTSMOUTH, OHIO.
When you want the BEST footwear give him a call. no4,1y

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

The Distinguished Divine Again in the South.

The Fate of Christendom Hanging in a Basket—Parts of a Great Plan Found in the Casual and Accidental—What a World of Importance Little Things.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D.D., who is now visiting the south, selected as the subject of Sunday's sermon, "Apprenticed Services," the text being taken from II. Cor. xi, 33: "Through a window, in a basket, was I let down by the wall."

Damascus is a city of white and glistening architecture, sometimes called the "eye of the east," sometimes called "a pearl surrounded by emeralds," at one time distinguished for sword-making, the best material being Damascus blades, and upholstery of richest fabric called damask. A horseman by the name of Paul, riding toward this city, had been thrown from the saddle. The horse had dropped under him from the sky, which at the same time was so bright it blinded the rider for many days, and I think so permanently injured his eyesight that he never again saw the thorn in the flesh he afterwards speaks of. He started for Damascus to butcher Christians, but after that hard fall from his horse he was encouraged when a preached Christ in Damascus till the city was shaken to its foundation.

The mayor gives authority for his arrest, and the popular cry is "Kill him! Kill him!" The city is surrounded by a high wall, and the gates are watched by the police lest the Christian preacher escape. Many of the houses are built on the wall, and the balconies project clear over and hovered above the gardens outside. It was customary to lower baskets out of these balconies and pull up fruits and flowers from the gardens. In the day of Paul, at the monastery of Mount Sinai, are lifted and let down in baskets. Detectives prowled around from house to house looking for Paul, but his friends hid him now in one place, now in another. He is no coward, as fifty incidents in his life demonstrate. But he feels his work is not done yet, and so he escapes assassination. That preacher here? The foaming mob shout at one house door. "Is that fanatic here?" the police shout at another door. Sometimes on the street innocently he passes through a crowd of clenched fists, and sometimes he secretes himself on the housetop. At last the infuriated populace get on a sassafras tree. They have positive evidence that he is in the balcony of one of the Christians, the balcony of whose owner reaches over the wall. "Here he is! Here he is!" The vociferation and blasphemy and shouting of the populace is at the front door. They break in. "Fetch out that Gospelizer, and let us hang his head on the city gate. Where is he?" The emergency was terrible. Fortunately there was a good, stout basket in the house. Paul's friends basket a rope to the basket. Paul steps into it. The basket is lifted to the edge of the balcony on the wall, and then Paul holds on to the rope with both hands his friends lower away, carefully and cautiously, slowly but surely, further and further down, until the basket strikes the earth, and the apostle steps out, and stoof and alone starts on that famous missionary tour, the story of which has astonished earth and Heaven. Appropriate only in the day of travel. "Through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall."

Observe, first, on what a slender thread great results hang. The tinker or the cooper who twisted the cord fastened to that lowering basket never knew how much would depend on the strength of it. How if it had been broken and the apostle's life had been lost? What if it had been made of the Christian church? All that magnificent missionary work in Pamphylia, Cappadocia, Galatia, Macedonia would never have been accomplished. All his writings that make up so indispensable and enchanting a part of the New Testament would never have been written. The story of rescue would never have been so gloriously told as he told it. That example of heroic and triumphant endurance at Philippi, in the Mediterranean euroclydon, under flagellation and at the hands of the executioners have kindled the courage of 10,000 martyrs. But the rope holding that basket, how much depended on it? So again and again great results have hung on what seemed slender circumstances.

Did ever ship of many thousands tons crossing the sea have such important passenger as that boat of leaves? From taffrail to stern only three or four feet, the vessel made waterproof by a coat of bitumen and floating on the Nile with its infant lawgiver of the Jews on board? What if some of the cattle washed in for a drink should sink it? Vessels of war sometimes carry forty guns looking through the port holes, ready for sudden battle. But that tiny craft on the Nile seemed to be armed with all the guns of thunder that bombarded Sinai at the law giving. On how fragile a raft he sailed home of historic importance!

The parsonage at Epworth, Eng., is on fire in the night, and the father rushed through the hallway for the rescue of his children. His children are out and safe on the ground, but he remains in the consuming building. That one wakes, and, sliding his bed on fire and the building crumbling, comes to the window, and two peasants make a ladder of their bodies, one peasant standing on the shoulder of the other, and down the ladder slides the boy descends—John Wesley. If you would know how much depended on that ladder of peasants, ask the millions of Methodists on both sides of the sea. Ask their mission stations all round the world. Ask the hundreds of thousands already ascended to join their founder, who would have perished had not the living stair of peasant shoulders.

An English ship stopped at Piteira island, and right in the midst of surrounding cannibalism and squalor the passengers discovered a Christian colony of churches and schools, and beautiful homes, and highest style of religion and civilization. For fifty years no missionary and no Christian influence had been in this coast of light amid a desert of heathendom. Sixty years before a ship had met disaster, and one of the sailors, unable to save anything else, went to the shore, and in the wreck of his ship his mother had placed there, and swam ashore; the Bible held in his teeth. The book was read on all sides until the rough and vicious population by one book. It did not seem of much importance whether the sailor continued to hold the book in his teeth or let it fall in the breakers, but upon what small circumstance depended what mighty results!

Practical inference: There are no insignificances in our lives. The minutest thing is part of a magnitude. Infinites make up a totality. Do not dismiss things as aggregation of small things. Bethlehem manger pulling on a star in the eastern sky. One book in a drenched sailor's mouth the evangelization of a nation. A rope in the hands of a man on the Nile freighted with events for all ages. The fate of Christendom in a basket let down from a window on the wall. What you do, well! If you make a rope, make it strong and true, for you know not how much may depend on your workmanship. If you fashion a boat, let it be waterproof, for you know not who may sail in it.

If you put a Bible in the trunk of your boy, let him take it from home, let it be heard in your prayers, for it may have a mission as far-reaching as the book which the sailor carried in his mouth to Piteira island. The plainest man's life is an island between two eternities—eternity past rippling against his shoulders, eternity to come touching his brow. The casual, the accidental, the trifling, the merely banal, are parts of a great plan, and the rope that lets the fugitive apostle from the Damascus wall is the cable that holds to its mooring the ship of the church in the northeast storm of the centuries.

Again, notice unrecognized and unrecalled services. Who spun that rope? Who tied it to the basket? Who steadied the ladder? Who carried the rope? Who stepped into it? Who relaxed not a muscle of the arm or dismissed an anxious look from his face until the basket touched the ground and discharged its mighty cargo? Not one of their names has come to us, but there was no work done that day in Damascus, or in all the earth, compared with the importance of their work. What if they had in their agitation tied a knot that could slip? What if the sound of the mob at the door had led them to say: "Paul must take care of himself, and I will ever accomplish my duty." But God knows and has made eternal record of their undertaking. And they know. How exultant they must have felt when they read the letters of Rome to the Corinthians, to the Galatians, to the Ephesians, to the Philippians, to the Colossians, to the Thessalonians, to Timothy, to Titus, to Philemon, to the Hebrews, and when they heard how he walked out of prison with the earthquake unhooking the door for him and took command of the Alexandrian corn ship when the sailors were nearly scared to death, and preached a sermon that nearly shook Felix off his judgment seat. I hear the men and women who helped him down through the window and up the wall, talking in private over the matter and saying: "How glad I am that we affected that rescue! In coming times others may get the glory of Paul's work, but no one can rob us of the satisfaction of knowing that we held the rope."

There are said to be about 60,000 ministers of religion in this country. About 50,000 warrant came from early homes where the fathers of the nation sowed the seed of life. The sons of rich bankers and merchants generally become bankers and merchants. The most of those who become ministers are the sons of those who had terrible struggle to get their every-day bread. The collegiate and theological education of that son took every luxury from the parent's table for eight years. The other children were more scantily apparelled. The son at college every little while got a bundle from home. In it were the socks that mother had knitted, the shirt his father had sewed up as good as once it was. An there also were some delicacies from the sister's hand for the voracious appetite of a hungry student.

The years go by, and the son has been ordained and is preaching the glorious Gospel, and the great revival comes, and the world is stirred by the young preacher, and father and mother, quite old now, are visiting the son at that village parsonage, and at the close of the week of mighty blessing, father and mother retire to their room, the son lighting the way and asking them if he can do anything to make them more comfortable, saying if they want anything in the night just to knock on the wall. And then all alone father and mother talk over the gracious influences of the day, and say: "Well, it was worth all we went through to educate that boy! It was a hard pull, but we held on till the work was done. The world may not know it, but I, mother, who held the rope, didn't we?" And the voice, tremulous with joyful emotion, responds: "Yes, father, we held the rope. I feel my work is done. I feel that I have done my part, and I feel that I have helped to bring about the peace, for mine eyes have seen this salvation."

"Pshaw!" says the father. "I never felt so much like living as now. I want to see that that fellow is going to do, he has begun so well."

Oh, men and women here assembled, you brag sometimes how you have fought your way in the world, but I think there have been helpful influences that you have never fully acknowledged. Has there not been some influence in your early or present home that would not have been there had you not reached to you from among the New England hills or from western prairies or from southern plantation or from English or Scottish or Irish home a cord of influence that has kept you right when you would have gone astray, and which, after you had made a crooked track, recalled you? The rope may be as long as 30 years or 60 miles, longer or shorter, but hands that went out of mortal sight long ago still hold the rope. You want a very swift horse, and you need to feel lively at the sharp end of the rope, and to let the reins lie loose upon the neck, and to give a shout to a racer, if you are going to ride out of reach of your mother's prayers. Why, then, ship across the Atlantic in seven days can't sail away from them! A sailor finds them on the lookout as he takes his place, and finds them on the mast as he climbs the ratlines to disengage himself from the tangle, and finds them swinging on the hammock when he turns in. Why not be frank and acknowledge it—the most of us would think that we are dashed down by the hand of grace, and loving hands steadily and lovingly and mightily held the rope.

But there must come a time when we shall find that the Damascus sailors who lowered Paul in the basket, and greet them and all those who have rendered to God and the world unrecognized and unrecalled services. That is going to be the glad exultation of Heaven—the hunting up and picking out of those who did great good on earth and got no credit for it. The good that has been going on for nineteen centuries, and this probably the first sermon ever recognizing the services of the people in that Damascus balcony. Charles G. Finney said to a young man, a convert of his, "I shall see Paul when you meet him. When you and I meet him, as we will, I shall ask him to introduce me to those people who got him out of the Damascus peril."

Once for thirty-six hours we expected every moment to go to the bottom of the ocean. The waves struck through skylights and rushed into the hold of the ship, and the water was everywhere. It was an awful time; but by the blessing of God and the faithfulness of the men in charge we came out of the ocean, and the ship was saved. I was before leaving the ship thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down in the darkness and the hissing furnaces, doing his duty, and he was the one who, before leaving the ship, thanked Capt. Andrews. I do not think there was a man or woman that went off that ship without thanking Capt. Andrews, and when years after I heard of his death, I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Every body recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but it occurs to me now that we never thanked the engineer. He stood away down

A Solemn Marriage Ceremony.
A strange wedding ceremony took place at Columbus, Ohio, recently. It was the marriage of a daughter at the bedside of her dying father and at his request, Edward Babbitt, an old soldier, with a record to be proud of, has been lying at the point of death for a few days, and the attending physician announced that he could not live through the night. Mr. Babbitt's eldest daughter, Miss Jennie, is his favorite child, and, as he knew he was soon to be married to John Sauer, of that city, it was the father's wish to have the ceremony performed in his presence and before he became unconscious. Accordingly hasty preparations were made for the ceremony, and the father, lying on the bed-side of the dying man, the sacred words, pronouncing the couple man and wife, were said. The ceremony was witnessed only by the members of the families of the contracting parties, and was impressive in the extreme.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kension, of Bolan, Worth county, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was laid to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

One of the Sturdy Old Stock.
Grandma Wray, of Fairbury, Ill., who has just celebrated her one hundred and second birthday, says: "I hear people talking of hard times now. Why, if those people who are indulging in the kind of talk should see half as hard times as I have experienced in my life the insane asylums would have to be established in every county and would be enlarged to hold them. Many times have I taken the axe and gone with my brothers and sisters to the hills of Virginia and cut wood. We girls would be cut just as much wood as the boys. We would swing the axes with every bit as much vim as they. Where is there a girl of fifteen years nowadays that will do like that? Many times I have taken a hired man's place in the field with a hoe, cultivating tobacco, corn and even cotton."

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be obtained by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

A Horrible Crime.
A terrible double crime and suicide is reported from Glenville, W. Va. Last Thursday when Mrs. Rodabaugh, wife of Lloyd Rodabaugh, a prosperous farmer and land owner, returned from a visit to a neighbor, she missed the usual presence of her two children and husband. Mrs. Rodabaugh entered a bedroom at an end of the building and was horrified to find the two little children—one of whom was 3 years old and the other 5—hanging to a rafter in the ceiling of the room. In another room the body of her husband was found. Life was extinct in all the bodies, and had been for several hours. No cause can be assigned for the horrible crime, but the general belief is that Rodabaugh was insane at the time.

A Blood-Thirsty Negro.
A case of mayhem occurred Friday night last at North Middletown. It seems that Mr. C. C. Priest, who conducts a grocery store at that place, had become involved in a difficulty with a colored man named George Thomas, who was standing around after making a small purchase. The negro upset a bottle of ink, and upon being reproved for his carelessness made some insulting remarks, and then dared Mr. Priest to come out of the house. When Mr. Priest turned to get something to defend himself, the negro sprang upon him, biting his ear entirely off, after which he chewed on it awhile and tossed it away. Thomas left immediately, and has not yet been arrested.—Kentucky Citizen.

You can relieve that headache you have by buying a box of Megrimine at THE HERALD office. It will only cost 50 cents and is sold on a positive guarantee.

Pick Your Weather.
The following data from the record of observations for the month of May taken at the weather bureau station in Cincinnati for a period of twenty-three years is interesting. The warmest May was that of 1881, with an average of 70.6 degrees, and the coldest that of 1891, with an average of 59.6 degrees. The highest temperature during any May was 94 degrees on May 30, 1874, and May 27, 1875; the lowest temperature was 35 degrees on May 22, 1883. The greatest monthly precipitation was 8.47 inches in 1882, and the lowest was 1.02 inch in 1871. The average number of cloudless days was 9, the average partly cloudy days 14 and cloudy days 14. The prevailing winds have been from the southeast. The highest velocity of the wind during any May was 36 miles from the northwest on May 11, 1880, and on May 5, 1893, from the southwest. The average day on which last "killing" frost occurred in spring was April 20.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

A Fish Drowns an Eagle.
At the mouth of Octoraro creek, four miles above Port Deposit, is a bed of gravel, where shad, rock and herring go to spawn. In the spring and early summer large schools of fish go to this locality, and bald and gray eagles flock to the vicinity for the purpose of preying on them. The water on the Cecil county side is about 10 feet deep, and, being clear, the fish are readily seen by their winged enemies.

A gray eagle saw a rockfish in the water and pounced upon him, sinking his talons deep into the side of the fish. When the bird attempted to arise he found the load more than he could carry. He could not release his hold, either. Finally he was dragged under the water and drowned. The current carried the eagle and the fish into a fishpot, where the bodies were found, with the hold of the eagle unrelaxed. The fish weighed pounds, and the bird measured six feet from tip of the wing.—Baltimore Sun.

A Famous Day.
April 19 will always be remembered as the anniversary of the death of the first martyr in the greatest two wars on the American continent. The battle of Lexington, between the Minute Men, of Massachusetts, and the British, on April 19, 1775, was the first struggle with bloodshed in the American revolution. And on April 19, 1861, the first blood was shed in the suppression of the gigantic American rebellion, the fight occurring between a mob of Baltimore citizens and the Sixth regiment of Massachusetts volunteers.

P. L. Rose, at Mt. Sterling, is headquarters in Kentucky for sewing machines and supplies. Write him for bottom prices.

Drunk on Wedding Day.
A very mysterious wedding took place in Anderson, Ind., one morning last week. The celebrating parties came in from different directions in the early morning trains. They obtained a license, giving their names as A. L. Daily, Detroit, Mich., and Tennie Baddow, Paducah, Ky. Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding was performed by Squire Fleming, they got a cab and proceeded to take in the town, becoming intoxicated. They went to Muncie, Ind. They had plenty of money.

Unlucky Thirteen.
The figure "13" seems to have figured quite prominently in the life of the poet Ben King, who recently died at Bowling Green. According to the Bowling Green Bee, he was born on the thirteenth of the month. He was a member of a family of thirteen; he cast his first vote just thirteen years before the day of his death; he had appeared on the stage just thirteen times with Opie Reed; he sat down to a table with thirteen at the banquet the night of his death, and that thirteen pennies were found in his vest pocket.

Neglect of the hair often destroys its vitality and natural hue, and causes it to fall out. Before it is too late apply Hall's Hair Restorer, a sure remedy.

An Incendiary's Work.
The lively and feebly stable of Jeff Prater, a prominent merchant and hotel man, of Salyersville, Ky., was destroyed by fire last week. Two fine horses and other property to the amount of $750 were lost, and the total loss is about $2,000. No insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary. In attempting to save some of the live stock Wiley Rice was seriously burned about the face and hands.

Driven Back to Their Cells.
Wm. Deatley, the murderer of Mart Cline, and his father and two brothers, who were implicated, waived their examining trial and were sent back to jail until the May term. They were allowed the freedom of the corridor, to talk to their wives. Taking advantage of this freedom, they made a desperate attempt to overpower Jailer Nixon and escape. The citizens of Owingsville responded in a body and drove them back into their cells.

The official history of the World's fair will contain thirty volumes.

During the entire week, and until the entire lot is closed out, our 14k Solid Gold Fountain Pens go at $1 each, as long as they last. We have one of these pens filled ready for use. Call in and try it.
FRED J. HEINTZ, Manufacturing Jeweler.
Custom House Square, Lexington, Ky.

ENGLISH KITCHEN.

12 W. SHORT STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

Regular Meals, 25 cents. Meals to order at all hours. Breakfast from 5 to 9 a. m. Dinner from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Supper from 5 to 9 p. m.

Oysters, Lamb Fries, Fish and Chicken a Specialty.
GUS. LUIGART, Proprietor.

COMBS HOUSE, CAMPTON, KY.
J. B. HOLLON, PROPRIETOR.

The patronage of the traveling public is respectfully solicited. Table the best, and every attention to the comfort of guests.

ALLEN HOUSE, LEE CITY, KY.

The above house is now open to the public and the patronage solicited. Table the best the country affords, and charges reasonable. Good stable and care of horses. Give me a call. C. B. ALLEN, Proprietor.

ST. JAMES HOTEL, Fourth Street, near Main, CINCINNATI, O.

GEO. WEBER'S SONS, Managers. The patronage of Wolfe and Morgan counties solicited.

HOTEL LELAND, Lexington, Ky. S. R. BROOKS, Proprietor.

New Building! Gas and Electric Light! Electric Elevator! Heated throughout with Hot Water. $20.00 a Day. Near business center and depot. Come and see me. Respectfully, S. R. BROOKS.

VICTOR + BOGAERT, Manufacturing Jeweler, 17 E. Short Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry. Reliable Goods, Fair Dealing and Bottom Prices. All Goods and Work Guaranteed.

MARLIN SAFETY
Made in all styles and sizes. Lightest, strongest, coolest working, most accurate, most compact, and most modern. For sale by all dealers in arms. Catalogue mailed free by
The Marlin Fire Arms Co., NEW HAVEN, CONN., U.S.A.

REPEATING RIFLES

HUMPHREYS' THE MILD POWER CURES.

Dr. Humphrey's Specifics are scientifically and carefully prepared. They are used by 30 years in private practice and for over thirty years by the people with entire success. Every single Specific a special cure for the disease named. They cure without dragging, burning or reducing the system, and are in fact the best Sovereign Remedies of the World.

SYMBOL.	CURE.	PRICE.
1	Fever, Congestions, Inflammations.	.25
2	Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic.	.25
3	Teething, Colic, Crying, Wakefulness.	.25
4	Diarrhea, of Children or Adults.	.25
5	Dysentery, Cramping, Bilious Colic.	.25
6	Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness.	.25
7	Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis.	.25
8	Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache.	.25
9	Headaches, Sick Headache, Vertigo.	.25
10	Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation.	.25
11	Suppressed or Painful Periods.	.25
12	Whites, Too Profuse Periods.	.25
13	Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness.	.25
14	Sore Throat, Erysipelas, Eruptions.	.25
15	Rheumatism, or Nervous Pains.	.25
16	Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague.	.25
17	Cholera, Stomach, or Bowel Complaint.	.25
18	Ophthalmia, More or Less Erythema.	.25
19	Whooping Cough.	.25
20	Asthma, Oppressed Breathing.	.25
21	Scarlatina, Impetigo, Herpes.	.25
22	Scrofula, Enlarged Glands, Swelling.	.25
23	General Debility, Phthisis, Etc.	.25
24	Dropsy, and Heavy Secretions.	.25
25	Non-Union, Abscess, Bone Disease.	.25
26	Kidney Diseases.	.25
27	Stricture, Hemorrhoids, Piles.	.25
28	Urinary Weakness, Wetting Bed.	.25
29	Cholera, Stomach, or Bowel Complaint.	.25
30	Diarrhea, or Stomach or Bowel Complaint.	.25
31	Chronic Congestion of Throat.	.25

EXTRA REMEDIES:
28—Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Etc. .50
29—Disseminated Eczema, Psoriasis .50
30—Epilepsy, Spasms, St. Vitus' Dance. .50

Bottle by Express, or sent post-paid on receipt of price. In Advance, Retail, 14 cents. Wholesale, 10 cents. DR. HUMPHREY'S MED. CO., 111 & 113 William St., New York.

SPECIFICS.
HUMPHREYS' WITCH HAZEL OIL
"THE FILE OINTMENT."

For Piles—External or Internal, Itching or Bleeding; Fissures in the Anal, Itching or Bleeding of the Rectum. The relief is immediate—the cure certain.
PRICE, 50 CTS. BOTTLES, 25 CENTS.
Sold by Druggists, or sent post-paid on receipt of price. HUMPHREY'S MED. CO., 111 & 113 William St., NEW YORK.

GUTHRIE & WATSON, 18, 20 and 22 N. UPPER STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING.
Grand Opening of Spring Dress Goods Every Day.

OUR CUSTOMERS recognize the fact that we are giving the best value and showing the largest assortment of New and Seasonable Dress Goods, Silks, Novelties, Velvets and Millinery of any house in Kentucky. Silks from China, India and Japan; such styles were never shown, such beauties were never seen, prices were never so low. See the great variety and novelty in our French Silks, Satin Duchesse, Moire Antique, Brocades Stripes, Pate de Soie, Zanzibars and Chamois effects. Have every weave known to the most famous makers in Europe. Our Grenadines are a specialty, and our patterns can be found nowhere else.

Our Spring Woolens are beautiful, and our importations are the latest, our stock the largest and most varied, our styles unequalled. Novelties in China and Japanese Draperies.

Embroideries, Laces and White Goods, Underwear, Corsets and Hosiery, India Linen, Dimity, Mulls, Pique, French and English Nainsooks, Embroidered Swiss.

Artistic patterns in wash materials, Duck Suitings, Galatan Cloths, Figured Corded Muslin, Zephyr Gingham, Real French Organdies, our own designs. Such a rarely beautiful selection of these lovely goods were never shown by one house before. Children's Gingham and Muslin Dresses, splendidly made, 6 months to 8 years.

Ready-made Eton Suits in black, tan and blue. Shirt Waists, Black Dress Goods, the best value, the best wearing, the most satisfactory are the Lupin weaves. We have One Hundred varieties to select from. Storm Serges are always ready. Imperial Cords, Jacquards, Melrose, Henriettes, Crepons and Granite Cloths. Spring Capes, cloth and lace. Spring Jackets, new styles, light in weight, low in price.

The largest stock of Jouvin Genuine Kid Gloves in all lengths, all colors, the finest made.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

The largest stock of Millinery Goods in Lexington. Specialties in Bonnets, Hats, Children's Caps, Flowers, Veiling, Ribbons. See our display of new things from Paris, London and New York.

DRESS MAKING DEPARTMENT.

Miss Orr has charge. The latest styles are given you, a perfect fit is assured. Wedding and street costumes made on short notice.

GUTHRIE & WATSON.

KEEP PERFECTLY STILL
AND LISTEN TO US.

You must have goods and we must have money. We will guarantee a saving of 15 to 25 per cent to you on every purchase from us. We sell everything in the dry goods line of Notion Line. We sell Carpets, Oil Cloths and Window Shades at

CINCINNATI : PRICES!
Lexington and Mt. Sterling prices not in it. We make Gent's Clothing to order at less than ready-made prices. We give elegant, guaranteed

SILVERWARE FREE!
To our customers. We'll give you the biggest inducements you ever got to trade with us. Try it this year.

THE GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS STORE, Winchester, Ky.
W. F. HILTON, Proprietor.

JAY-EYE-SEE 2:10
MR. J. I. CASE, (Hickory Grove Farm, home of Jay-Eye-See) has been, since "After trying every known remedy, I found a better thing of two years standing, from a 3 year old Billy, with three applications of
QUINN'S OINTMENT.
It is the best preparation I have ever used or heard of. I heartily recommend it to all Horsemen."
We have hundreds of such testimonials.
Price, $1.50 per bottle. Ask your druggist for it. If he does not keep it, send us a stamp or silver for trial box.
W. B. EMMY & CO., Whitehall, N. Y.
TRADE MARK.
Price, 50 CTS. BOTTLES, 25 CENTS.
Bottle by Express, or sent post-paid on receipt of price. HUMPHREY'S MED. CO., 111 & 113 William St., NEW YORK.

THE HERALD
is only $1 a year, and it is acknowledged to be the best local paper published in Kentucky. Subscribe now, and secure all the good things it will contain this year.

Pick Your Weather.
The following data from the record of observations for the month of May taken at the weather bureau station in Cincinnati for a period of twenty-three years is interesting. The warmest May was that of 1881, with an average of 70.6 degrees, and the coldest that of 1891, with an average of 59.6 degrees. The highest temperature during any May was 94 degrees on May 30, 1874, and May 27, 1875; the lowest temperature was 35 degrees on May 22, 1883. The greatest monthly precipitation was 8.47 inches in 1886 and the lowest was 1.02 inches in 1871. The average number of cloudless days was 8, the average partly cloudy days 14 and cloudy days 8. The prevailing winds have been from the southeast. The highest velocity of the wind during any May was 36 miles from the northwest on May 11, 1889, and on May 5, 1893, from the southwest. The average day on which last "killing" frost occurred in spring was April 20.

A Solemn Marriage Ceremony.
A strange wedding ceremony took place at Columbus, Ohio, recently. It was the marriage of a daughter at the bedside of her dying father and at his request. Edward Habbitt, an old soldier, with a record to be proud of, has been lying at the point of death for a few days, and the attending physician announced that he could not live through the night. Mr. Habbitt's eldest daughter, Miss Jennie, is his favorite child, and, as he knew, he was soon to be married to John Seay, a young man of that city, it was the father's wish to have the ceremony performed in his presence and before he became unconscious. Accordingly hasty preparations were made for the ceremony, and, standing by the bedside of the dying man, the sacred words, pronouncing the couple man and wife, were said. The ceremony was performed only by the members of the families of the contracting parties, and was impressive in the extreme.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Nathan Kenson, of Bolan, Worth county, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper where a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and he had it cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week." 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

One of the sturdy old stock.
Grandma Wier, of Fairbury, Ill., who has just celebrated her one hundred and second birthday, says: "I hear people talking of hard times now. Why, if those people who are indulging in that kind of talk should see half as hard times as I have experienced in my life the insane asylums would have to be established in every county and would be enlarged to hold the crowd. Many times I have taken the axe and gone with my brothers and sisters to the hills of Virginia and cut wood. My girls used to cut just as much wood as the boys. We would swing the axes with every bit as much vim as they. Where is there a girl of fifteen years now who would do like that? Many times have I taken a hired man's place in the field with a hoe, cultivating tobacco, corn and even cotton."

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

A Horrible Crime.
A terrible double crime and suicide is reported from Glenville, Va. Last Thursday when Mrs. Rodabaugh, wife of Lloyd Rodabaugh, a prosperous farmer and land owner, returned from a visit to a neighbor, she missed the usual presence of her two children and husband. Mrs. Rodabaugh entered a bedroom at an end of the building and was horrified to find the two little children—one of whom was 3 years old and the other 5—hanging to a rafter in the ceiling of the room. In another room the body of her husband was found. Life was extinct in all the bodies, and had been for several hours. No cause can be assigned for the horrible crime, but the general belief is that Rodabaugh was insane at the time.

A Blood-Thirsty Negro.
A case of mayhem occurred Friday night last at North Middletown. It seems that Mr. C. C. Priest, who conducts a grocery store at that place, became involved in a difficulty with a colored man named George Thomas, who was standing around after making a small purchase. The negro upon a banter of the house, threatened a box of Megrimine at The Herald office. It will only cost 50 cents and is sold on a positive guarantee.

You can relieve that headache you have by buying a box of Megrimine at The Herald office. It will only cost 50 cents and is sold on a positive guarantee.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been used, and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by John M. Rose.

A Fish Drowns an Eagle.
At the mouth of Octopus creek, four miles above Port Deposit, is a bed of gravel, where shad, rock and herring go to spawn. In the spring and early summer large schools of fish go to this locality, and bald and gray eagles flock to the vicinity for the purpose of preying on them. The water on the Cecil county side is about 10 feet deep, and, being clear, the fish are readily seen by their winged enemies. A gray eagle saw a rockfish in the water and pounced upon him, sinking his talons deep into the side of the fish. When the bird attempted to arise he found the load more than he could carry, could not release his hold, either. Finally he was dragged under the water and drowned. The current carried the eagle and the fish into a fishpot, where the bodies were found, with the hold of the eagle unrelaxed. The fish weighed 16 pounds, and the bird measured six feet from tip to tip of the wing—Baltimore Sun.

A Famous Day.
April 19 will be remembered as the anniversary of the death of the first martyrs in the greatest war on the American continent. The battle of Lexington, between the Minute Men, of Massachusetts, and the British, on April 19, 1775, was the first struggle with bloodshed in the American revolution, and on April 19, 1861, the first blood was shed in the suppression of the gigantic American rebellion, the fight occurring between a mob of Baltimore citizens and the sixth regiment of Massachusetts volunteers.

P. L. Reese, at Mr. Sterling, is headquarters in Kentucky for sewing machines and supplies. Write him for bottom prices.

Drunk on Wedding Day.
A very mysterious wedding took place in Anderson, Ind., one morning last week. The contracting parties came in from different directions on the early morning trains. They obtained a license, giving their names as A. L. Daily, Detroit, Mich., and Jennie Biddle, Paducah, Ky. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Squire Fleming, they got a cab and proceeded to take in the town, becoming intoxicated. They were taken to Muncie, Ind. They had plenty of money.

Unlucky Thirteen.
The figure "13" seems to have figured quite prominently in the life of the poet Ben King, who recently died at Bowling Green. According to the Bowling Green Bee, he was born on the thirteenth of the month; he was a member of a family of thirteen; he cast his first vote just thirteen years before the day of his death; he had appeared on the stage just thirteen times with Opie Reed; he sat down to a table with thirteen at the banquet the night of his death, and that thirteen pennies were found in his vest pocket.

Neglect of the hair often destroys its vitality and natural hue, and causes it to fall out. Before it is too late apply Hall's Hair Renewer, a sure remedy.

An Incendiary's Work.
The lively and feed stable of Jeff Prater, a prominent merchant and hotel man, of Salsville, Ky., was destroyed by fire last week. Two fine horses and other property to the amount of $750 were lost, and the total loss is about $2,000. No insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary. In attempting to save some of the live stock Wiley Rigg was seriously burned about the face and hands.

Driven Back to Their Cells.
Wm. Deatley, the murderer, Mart Cline, and his father and two brothers, who were implicated, waived their examining trial and were sent back to jail. The prisoners were given the freedom of the corridor, to talk to their wives. Taking advantage of this freedom, they made a desperate attempt to escape. They were detected. The citizens of Owensville responded in a body and drove them back into their cells.

The official history of the World's fair will contain thirty volumes.

During the entire week, and until the entire lot is closed out, our 14k Solid Gold Fountain Pens go at $1 each, as long as they last. We have one of these pens filled ready for use. Call in and try it.
FRED J. HEINTZ, Manufacturing Jeweler.
Custom House Square, Lexington, Ky.

ENGLISH KITCHEN.

12 W. SHORT STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

Regular Meals, 25 cents. Meals to order at all hours. Breakfast from 5 to 9 a. m. Dinner from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Supper from 5 to 9 p. m.

Oysters, Lamb Fries, Fish and Chicken a Specialty.
GUS. LUIGART, Proprietor.

COMBS HOUSE, CAMPTON, KY.
J. B. HOLLON, PROPRIETOR.

The patronage of the traveling public is respectfully solicited. Table the best, and every attention to the comfort of guests.

ALLEN HOUSE, LEE CITY, KY.

The above house is now open to the public and the patronage solicited. Table the best the country affords, and charges reasonable. Good stable and care of horses. Give me a call. C. M. LEE, Proprietor.

ST. JAMES HOTEL, Fourth Street, near Main, CINCINNATI, O.

GEO. WEBER'S SONS, Managers. The patronage of Wolfe and Morgan countries solicited.

HOTEL LELAND, Lexington, Ky.
S. R. BROOKS, Proprietor.

New Building! Gas and Electric Light! Electric Elevator! Heated throughout with Hot Water! Rates, $2.00 a Day. Near business center and depot. Come and see me. Respectfully, S. R. BROOKS.

VICTOR + BOGAERT, Manufacturing Jeweler, 17 E. Short Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry. Reliable Goods. Fair Dealing and Bottom Prices. All Goods and Work Guaranteed.

MARLIN SAFETY
Made in all styles and sizes. Lightest, strongest, most reliable, simplest, most accurate, most compact, and most modern. For sale by all dealers in arms. Catalogue mailed free by
The Marlin Fire Arms Co., New Haven, Conn., U.S.A.

THE MILD POWER CURES. HUMPHREYS'

Dr. Humphrey's Specifics are scientifically and carefully prepared Remedies, most for years in private practice and for over thirty years in the family with entire success. Every single Specific is a special cure for the disease named. The cure without dragging, purging or reducing the system, and is infallible and does the business. Remedies of the World.

Kind of ailment.	Cure.	Price.
1-Fevers, Congestions, Inflammations.	25	25
2-Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic.	25	25
3-Coughing Colds, Crying Waterbrashes.	25	25
4-Diarrhoea, of Children or Adults.	25	25
5-Nervous, ordinary, Bilious Colic.	25	25
6-Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.	25	25
7-Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough.	25	25
8-Neuritis, Toothache, Faceache.	25	25
9-Headaches, Sick Headache, Vertigo.	25	25
10-Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation.	25	25
11-Indigestion and Painful Periods.	25	25
12-Whitish, Too Frequent Periods.	25	25
13-Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness.	25	25
14-Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions.	25	25
15-Rheumatism, or Rheumatic Pains.	25	25
16-Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague.	25	25
17-Piles, Blind or Bleeding.	25	25
18-Gonorrhea, Sores of the Neck.	25	25
19-Catarrh, Inflammation, Cold in the Head.	25	25
20-Whooping Cough.	25	25
21-Asthma, Oppressed Breathing.	25	25
22-Ear Discharges, Impacted Hearing.	25	25
23-Scrofula, Enlarged Glands, Swelling.	25	25
24-General Debility, Physical Weakness.	25	25
25-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25
26-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25
27-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25
28-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25
29-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25
30-Typhoid, or Biliousness, Stomach.	25	25

EXTRA NUMBERS:
26-Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, or Impotence. 1.00
27-Dysentery, or Blood in the Stool. 1.00
28-Dysentery, or Blood in the Stool. 1.00

Sold by druggists, or sent postpaid on receipt of price. 10c. (Illustrated Manual, 100 pages.) MANUFACTURED BY DR. HUMPHREY'S MED. CO., 111 & 113 Wilson St., New York.

SPECIFICS.

HUMPHREYS' WITCH HAZEL OIL
"THE PILE OINTMENT."
For Piles—External or Internal, or Bleeding; Fissures in Anal; Itching or Bleeding of the Rectum. The relief is immediate—the cure certain.
PRICE, 50 CENTS. TRIAL SIZE, 25 CENTS.
Sole and General Agents for the West and South: HUMPHREY'S MED. CO., 111 & 113 Wilson St., NEW YORK.

GUTHRIE & WATSON, 18, 20 and 22 N. UPPER STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

—MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING.—
Grand Opening of Spring Dress Goods Every Day.

OUR CUSTOMERS recognize the fact that we are giving the best value and showing the largest assortment of New and Seasonable Dress Goods, Silks, Novelties, Velvets and Millinery of any houses in Kentucky. Silks from China, India and Japan; such styles were never shown, such beauties were never seen, prices were never so low. See the great variety and novelty in our French Silks, Satin Duches, Moire Antique, Brocades Stripes, Peau de Soie, Zanzibars and Chameleon effects. Have every weave known to the most famous makers in Europe. Our Granddames are a specialty, and our patterns can be found no where else.

Our Spring Woollens are beautiful, and our importations are the latest, our stock the largest and most varied, our styles unequalled. Novelties in China and Japanese Draperies.

Embroideries, Laces and White Goods, Underwear, Corsets and Hosiery, Linen, Dimity, Mulls, Pique, French and English Nainsooks, Embroidered Swiss.

Artistic patterns in wash materials, Duck Suitings, Galatea Cloths, Figured Corded Muslin, Zephyr Gingham, Real French Organdies, our own designs. Such a rarely beautiful selection of these lovely goods were never shown by one house before. Children's Gingham and Muslin Dresses, splendidly made, 6 months to 8 years.

Ready-made Eton Suits in black, tan and blue. Shirt Waists, Black Dress goods, the best value, the best wearing, the most satisfactory, are the Lapin waives. We have One Hundred varieties to select from. Storm Serges are always ready. Imperial Cordis, Jacquards, Melrose, Henriettes, Crepons and Granite Cloths. Spring Capes, cloth and lace. Spring Jackets, new styles, light in weight, low in price.

The largest stock of Jouvin Genuine Kid Gloves in all lengths, all colors, the finest made.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

The largest stock of Millinery Goods in Lexington. Specialties in Bonnets, Hats, Children's Caps, Flowers, Veilings, Ribbons. See our display of new things from Paris, London and New York.

DRESS MAKING DEPARTMENT.

Miss Orr has charge. The latest styles are given you, a perfect fit is assured. Wedding and street costumes made on short notice.

GUTHRIE & WATSON.

KEEP PERFECTLY STILL AND LISTEN TO US.

You must have goods and we must have money. We will guarantee a saving of 15 to 25 per cent to you on every purchase from us. We sell the Dry Goods and Notion line. We sell Carpets, Oil Cloths and Window Shades at

CINCINNATI : PRICES!

Lexington and Mt. Sterling prices not in it. We make terms "Clothing to order at less than ready-made prices. We give elegant, guaranteed

SILVERWARE FREE!

To our customers. We'll give you the biggest inducement you ever got before to trade with us. Try it this year.

THE GOLDEN RULE DRY GOODS STORE, Winchester, Ky.

W. F. HILTON, Proprietor.

JAY-EYE-SEE 2:10
MR. J. I. CASE, (Hickory Grove Farm, home of Jay-Eye-See Raccoon, Wis., says: "After trying every known remedy, I received a large bundle of two years standing, from a 8 year old molly, with three applications of
QUINN'S OINTMENT.
It is the best preparation I have ever used or heard of. I heartily recommend it to all horsemen."
We have hundreds of such testimonials.
Price, $1.50 per bottle. Ask your druggist for it. If he does not keep it, send us the name of your druggist.
W. B. EDDY & CO., Whitehall, N. Y.

THE HERALD is only $1 a year, and it is acknowledged to be the best local paper published in Kentucky. Subscribe now, and secure all the good things it will contain this year.

THE HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:

THURSDAY, : April
YOU'LL FIND I

Hardin county, Kentucky announced candidate for the Franklin county (K) returned 100 indictments at once.

Ex-Governor Thomas J. J. appointed United States senator Carolina, to succeed the late Henry Bowling, once sent at Mt. Sterling for killing 1892, received only a ten year second trial.

Three moonshine distillers quantity of liquor were sent and Leslie counties, Kentucky revenue officials.

Peter Mortel, a dissolute maker, committed suicide by He pawned his wife's wedding money to buy the drug.

Money is so scarce in some mountains that the editor of changes says he will take anything that he can eat or

This year, according to the the seventeen-year locusts an or thirteen-year cicadas will be with us, beginning to arrive as early as May 1st. Saloons in Ohio will hereafter open as early as any other new law prohibits saloons, or devices to hide the interior of liquor is sold.

During a storm near Griddling struck a barn owned by B. The building was destroyed and named B. which was burned to death.

A jurymen in Missouri plea of an act of contempt of had the choice between that of wife, he rather thought that be more merciful.

A prominent bank county has given the matter a fair trial there is more money in five a cultivated apple orchard than twenty acres of tobacco.

During the past week eleven throughout the county down, while thirty have been, giving employment to who were in enforced idleness

Several months ago Lucien Charles Hines, at Greens county, Ky., and last week H. Patterson guilty and fined at two years in the penitentiary

Senator Palmer introduced senate repealing the state ban prohibiting the issuance of moneying institutions or by any other person except national bank

Congressman Barry, of the says he has not abandoned his appropriation for Kentucky amounts, and will again the coin at least $300,000 as Kentucky session's appropriations.

Cincinnati physicians say the epidemic of hotel and room that is that it is large impure condition of the city. The only safe-guard, they say the water before drinking it.

A mob of Ohio men, women led by the injured wife, then husband from the town of Deal the woman with whom he has beneath the spot of a railroad until she was almost drowned.

Democrats of the Second district nominated Judge Willis a candidate for judge of the K. of appeals. The convention Bowling Green, and all the district were represented save and Edmundson.

Newport, Ky., has a magnificent, or rather pretentious, to a fringe ceremony. His name is inson. He says such ceremony should only be reserved for of the gospel. He says if he relative or friend of his should by a magistrate.

The state weather bulletin, shows that pastorage in California, drying rapidly in the valleys. The central and southern of the state are suffering the drought the Sacramento prospects for a good fruit crop everywhere. The short crops hay are in excellent condition.

Major Hedrick, teacher of State college, Lexington, Ky., was stricken with paralysis Friday morning last. Major Hedrick is about sixty years old and is said to be a German baron who was banished from his native land for taking part in the revolution of 1848. He was major of a Kentucky confederate regiment in the late war. He is well known among educational men.

A bill involving a cruder scheme than Cuxey's was introduced in congress last week by Representative John Davis, one of the curious proposals of Kansas brought to the front by the Populist upheaval. He proposes that the secretary of war enlist an industrial army of 200,000, to be employed on public works and be paid as regular soldiers. The small matter of the expense of the scheme is to be met by issuing $200,000,000 of fiat money and annually thereafter $100,000,000.

The Danville Advocate says: R. A. Goode and family, after some time spent in Carroll county, Missouri, has returned to his old Kentucky home near Danville, and asked to be forgiven. Among other products of Missouri that he don't take to is the weather. A drop of forty to fifty degrees while they are eating breakfast is a small matter, and twelve and fourteen inch ice is considered thin. In fact, the weather out there is frequently like that described in a recent letter from George Hackley, now in northern Mexico. He told of a man who came near being killed by a sunstroke one morning, but recovered from the effects of the heat in the afternoon, only to be frozen to death that night.

GOOD ROADS.

One county in Alabama has appropriated $20,000 for good roads; the taxpayers believing that the sum expended in this way will be a first class investment.—Ex.

The foregoing excerpt is only one of the many instances that have come under our observation during the past few weeks, and it shows plainly that the entire country is being awakened to the necessity of bettering the condition of all country roads, as well as those of the towns. For fully six months in the year farmers of this country find it almost impossible to travel on their roads.

MORGAN COUNTY NEWS.

Sellers Sunshine.

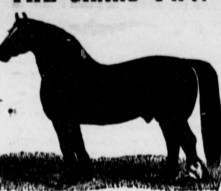

Eli Phipps had a fine young horse crippled last week by jumping.

Dr. H. G. and Nelson Chaney, sr., left Sunday morning for Pike county, whither they went horse trading.

J. M. Long returned from Mt. Sterling court last week, where he had some stock on the market. He reports dull sales.

Thomas Tipton was tried before Squire Blankenship, last Friday, for disturbing Kale Nickell and family, and was fined

THE GRAND TWO.

EAGLE DRENNON.

This premium saddle stallion will make the season of 1894 at the stable of W. T. Swanco, in Hazel Green, Ky., at $8 to INSURE A LIVING COLT money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, with lien on colt until paid.

EAGLE DRENNON is eight years old this spring, nearly 16 hands high, beautiful mane and tail, plenty of style and stamina. Sired by the famous Blue Jeans 3, 1st dam by the great pacer John Nixley, sire of the dam of Maggie F. 2:22; 3d dam by Adams Express, a noted saddle horse; 3d dam by Shashun; 4th dam by Copperbottom. Eagle Drennon is a half brother to Roscoe sold for $1,800, and eight more that sold for $1,000 or more. Blue Jeans horses have for several years sold higher than any saddle horses in Kentucky. Eagle Drennon can show what he is for himself. His colts saddle from any class of mares. Any mare that can rack or trot him, bred for. He took two blue ribbons at the Hazel Green fair last year.

Blue Grass Beauty.

This fine young stallion will also make the season of 1894 at the same place at $7 to INSURE money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, with lien on colt until season money is paid.

Here is the equal of any colt in Kentucky, 15½ hands high, 8 years old, 7th of May bright bay, with good mane and the grandest tail you ever saw. Goes at all the gaits. Sired by Eagle Drennon, by Blue Jeans, first dam Bird, by Lexington, one of the best mares in Montgomery county. Bird is the sire of two blue ribbon colts and has gained a mile in three minutes. Second dam the celebrated Hiram Wilkerson saddle mare. Beauty is a perfect model in every respect.

COME AND SEE THEM.

A premium of $8 will be given for the best colt of either horse shown at the Hazel Green fair in 1895.

RAY MOSS.

ACADEMY OF THE VISITATION.

FOR

YOUNG LADIES.

Mt. Admirables, White Sulphur, Ky.

This institution, under the direction of the Sisters of the Visitation, B. V. M., is situated in a healthy and beautiful locality by the well-known Blue Grass Region.

Here the pupils enjoy the comforts of home, far removed from the distractions of a city, and can, consequently, with greater facility avail themselves of the advantages afforded of a thorough education.

Tenure reasonable. Music, Crayon and Painting extra. House is heated by steam apparatus. For further particulars address

Sisters of the Visitation, B. V. M.

A DOUBLE BASS CLUB.

Scheme to Avoid Lugging the Big Bull Fiddles Around.

A gold-laced person got on a crowded Brooklyn trolley car and hung a bass drum over the brake-handle, says the New York World. The car lurched and the man next to him stepped on the gold-laced person's toes, and, being thus introduced, began a conversation about the drum.

"Heap of bother carrying a drum around, isn't it?"

"Yes, but not so much as a double bass, one of these big bass fiddles, you know—bull fiddles."

"Are they much trouble?"

"Well, they are this much trouble, that they won't let you get on a car in Brooklyn with one. In New York you have to get a permit to carry one, just the same as if it was a concealed weapon. Once, here in Brooklyn, I'd have to take a carriage for it. But now I belong to a double bass club."

"Have pretty good times, I suppose?"

You get together and smoke and have some beer and play solos on your double basses."

The gold-laced man looked down and laughed silently. Well, it is kind of funny to think of a lot of men sitting around and playing solos about two octaves below the singing voice. Voom! Voom!

"No," said he after a bit. "All the fellows that play the double bass belong to this club and pay two dollars a year dues. They have a lot of instruments and every place they have to go to play there is a closet containing a bass, to which only members of the club have keys. There is a book in the closet, and every time a fellow uses the bass he marks down his name. They have it in all the churches and theaters, and in the summer time on all the barges and excursion steamers. The two dollars from each member goes for repairs."

So that's the reason why you can't remember having seen a double bass on the street cars, no matter how hard you try.

A Petition People.

The curious fact has been mentioned by Sir Samuel Baker that a negro has never been known to tame an elephant or any wild animal. The elephants employed by the ancient Carthaginians and Romans were trained by Arabs and Carthaginians, never by negroes. Sir Samuel was distressed by the utter lack of pet animals among the children in Africa; and he often offered rewards for young elephants, but never succeeded in getting one alive.

George All Night.

Anxious Mother—My dear, I'm afraid George is getting into bad company. He is out very late nearly every night.

Observing Father—Oh! he's all right. He goes to see some girl or other. Shouldn't wonder if he'd announce an engagement soon.

"He hasn't said a word about any young lady."

"No, but he's keeping company with one all the time. I'd right wrist is full of pin scratches—good News."

The Young Spanish Jack.

ROSOCO

This premium Jack will make the season of 1894 at my stable in Hazel Green, Ky., at $8 to INSURE A LIVING COLT, money due when colt is foaled or mare is parted with, for which a lien will be retained on colt until season money is paid.

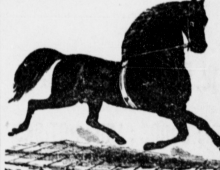

Rosoco will be 4 years old in June. He is black, perfect in form, and has to be seen to be appreciated. He was sired by English's imported Jack, that he paid $1,100 for; his dam, Black Bet, was sired by Old Aleck, Howell's famous jack, that he refused $1,500 for; he by old Bourbon Wilkes, Jr.

Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should they occur. Mares from a distance will be kept on reasonable terms.

W. T. SWANCO.

April 5, 1894.

$8 The Combined Stallion $8

FOREST • STONEWALL.

Will make the season of 1894 at $8 to INSURE A LIVING COLT, money due when mare is foaled, is parted with, or is bred to another horse. This Stallion will be at the stables of J. B. Cecil (one mile from Ezel) the first and third weeks of each month, and at W. G. Henry's (1½ miles west of West Liberty) the second and fourth weeks of each month.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.—Bay, black points, 8 years old last spring, 16½ hands high. Sired by Mambrino Forest, he by Ned Forest, Jr., he by Sir's Ned Forest, he by Alexander's Edwin Forest; first dam by Mambrino Chief, second dam by Virginia Whip, third dam by Sir Archie, Forest Stonewall's first dam by Brown's Stonewall, second dam by Tom Crowder, third by Ball's Copperbottom, fourth dam by Old Fanny, by Old Brown Pilot.

Good care will be taken of mares left with us, but will not be responsible for accidents should any occur. Grass $1 per month.

CECIL & HENRY, West Liberty, Ky.

FOR FINE JOB PRINTING. CALL AT THIS OFFICE.

OUR OVERCOATS AT HALF PRICE

DAYS!

reserved! Everything goes! marked in You differ price by price NOW.

RAUS,

NG

s, ishers,

ets,

N, KY.

OUR DOOR.

have opened a GENERAL store, and will carry a complete line of Gloves, Ladies' Toilets, Curly Irons, Razors, Brushes, etc., etc. Ladies' Slippers, complete line of Hosiery, Lingerie, etc., etc. Free of Charge.

The latest style just from the East. I will also do DRESSING, hair, etc. Best system of side first premium at the store, Ky., well and favorably. Your trade is respectfully

FRED DAY.

Eggs 8-13 cents.

THE BEST

NEY, you

odate you

ve a large

ether you

to see you

71.

good will ase.

I. ROSE.

HOFFMAN'S Insurance Agency.

FIRE. LIFE. ACCIDENT.

The Safest, Best and MOST RELIABLE Agency in Eastern Kentucky. Rates Reasonable.

ASSETS OVER $260,000.00. LOSSES PAID 275,000.00.

Address A. HOFFMAN, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

J. TAYLOR DAY,

Dealer in General Merchandise on a Cash Basis.

Largest Stock. Lowest Prices.

selecting delegates, either by primary election, mass convention, or precinct convention. If the latter mode is designated, the delegates selected at the precinct meetings shall meet at the county seat on the Tuesday following to select and instruct the delegates to the district convention. If a primary election is held, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to receive the vote of the county in the district convention.

R. H. VANSANT, Chm.

H. R. FRENCH, Sec'y.

From a Prominent Trainer.

Mr. Alex. Patterson, of Hedrick, Iowa, writes, under date of April 10, as follows: "After a thorough test of Quinn's Ointment I will say that it is the only preparation I have ever used with satisfactory results, and is what I have been in need of."

My stable will never be without it. For curbs, splints, spavins, windpuffs and all such troubles. Sent by mail or express prepaid upon receipt of $1.50. Address W. B. & S. Co., Newburgh, N. Y., unless you can obtain it from your druggist. For sale by John M. Rose.

FOR SALE—About 500,000 feet of pine and poplar timber near the mouth of Swift's creek and about one mile from Red river. For terms see

S. P. HOWE, Campton, Ky.

Electropoise is a mystery to me—almost a miracle.—(Elder) John I. Rodgers. In one night the Electropoise relieved me of congestion of the brain and vertigo.—Rev. Geo. H. Meigs, Covington, Ky.

A friend of mine was entirely cured of the quian habit with the Electropoise.—Rev. W. V. Venable, Louisville, Ky.

The Electropoise is a wonderful instrument, and it is more wonderful as to how it does its work, yet it does it.—T. E. C. Brinley (Flower), Louisville, Ky.

Address DuBOIS & WEBB, 509 Fourth Street, LOUISVILLE, KY.

A. FLOYD BYRLE, Campton, Ky. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Abstracts of title furnished, collections made promptly. Connected with the law firm of Wood & Day Mt. Sterling, Ky., in civil practice.

A. HOWARD STAMPER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, CAMPTON, KY.

Will practice in the courts of Wolfe and the adjoining counties. All business entrusted to one care will receive prompt attention.

FOR FINE JOB PRINTING. CALL AT THIS OFFICE.